Color Summary

Unit 2, Color, builds on the artist's growing knowledge of rendering by investigating color theory. This unit gives an in-depth look at the way colors work and the science of how our eyes perceive color. Artists will do extensive work in creating color wheels that challenge color theory compared to color practice. Artists will deepen their understanding of color and color relationships through working with cool and warm colors, color relationships, and varied techniques in colored pencils, markers, oil pastels, and chalk pastels.

Learning Objectives

- Compare and contrast warm and cool colors
- Define color theory
- Develop color pencil rendering and blending skills
- Evaluate color theory's practical application and influences in day-to-day life
- Identify everyday uses of color psychology
- Make artistic choices based on color psychology and color theory
- Use a color wheel to identify color relationships
- Use a variety of color drawing materials: oil pastels, chalk pastels, and colored pencils
- Use vocabulary relevant to color theory: monochromatic, analogous, arbitrary, complementary, primary, secondary, tertiary

Essential Skills

- Artists will be able to analyze and interpret artwork.
- Artists will be able to analyze the role and responsibility of an artist.
- Artists will be able to appropriately depict scale and proportion in the human figure and portrait.

- Artists will be able to compare and contrast periods of art movements.
- Artists will be able to critique and give constructive feedback on own artwork and artwork of others.
- Artists will be able to define, recognize, and apply the Elements of Art.
- Artists will be able to demonstrate strong skills in technical drawing.
- Artists will be able to develop a rich fine arts vocabulary.
- Artists will be able to discuss the roles of artists in local communities.
- Artists will be able to discuss the use of art as a form of visual communication.
- Artists will be able to display knowledge of various media and their properties.
- Artists will be able to examine art's place in the world.
