INTRO TO FICTION / THE GROTESQUE IN MAN'S NATURE

Learning Objectives

- Authorial Choices: Analyzing specific choices made by the author, such as the use of particular sentences and paragraphs to develop claims.
- Correlate the author's purpose in "The Sniper" with historical conflict in Ireland.
- Evidence-Based Analysis: Using textual evidence to support claims about the author's structural choices.
- Identify key points in "The Sniper" to support situational irony, conflict, and inference.
- Impact on Meaning: Evaluating how the structure affects the overall message and tone of the text.
- In addition, there may assigned secondary, informational readings, short videos / documentaries, musical selections, and visual arts to support primary text.
- Several weekly, short (150-200 word) literary response writing pieces will be used to assess comprehension, inferencing skills, and literary analysis. There will be required response to specific passages in the primary text to analyze literary elements and in response to narrative structure, the development of characters and themes, and the use of figurative language and its implied purpose. Textual evidence, annotation, and proper MLA citation usage will be used in support of all analysis of text, both fiction and nonfiction.
- Students will complete a text analysis worksheet where they will identify and analyze the author's structural choices in a selected passage. They will provide examples from the text and explain how those choices impact the overall meaning and effectiveness of the writing.
- Text Structure: Understanding how the arrangement of ideas influences the reader's comprehension and engagement.
- The primary focus of this unit is the reliance on appropriate and well-organized textual evidence and oral analysis of a given text.
- To support the primary focus of this unit, critical textual annotation will be taught in addition to syntax variety, figurative language, and phraseology (narrative technique). The writing process will include scaffolding concepts throughout the year and will develop writing techniques, which include, but are not
