Modifications

The following are a list of general accommodations that be made for students depending on their needs and or individualized education plan (IEP):

1. Instructional Modifications

- Simplified instructions (e.g., break down multi-step directions).
- Reduced language complexity (use simple grammar and vocabulary).
- Use of native language support when appropriate.
- Modified curriculum (focus on communication rather than grammar mastery).
- Alternative assessments (e.g., projects, oral presentations instead of written exams).

2. Presentation Accommodations

- Visual aids and cues (pictures, icons, gestures).
- Written and spoken instructions provided together.
- Captions on videos (especially for listening comprehension).
- Enlarged or high-contrast text for visual impairments.
- Use of assistive technology (e.g., screen readers, speech-to-text tools).
- Preview of vocabulary and grammar topics before new units.

3. Response Modifications

- Allowing verbal responses instead of written ones (or vice versa).
  - Use of alternative formats (typed vs. handwritten, audio recordings).
  - Extended time for responses and assessments.
  - Reduced number of questions or items without penalizing performance.
  - Use of multiple-choice instead of open-ended questions, if needed.

4. Environmental & Behavioral Supports

- Preferential seating (e.g., near the teacher or away from distractions).
  - Quiet workspace for tests or assignments.
  - Frequent breaks or chunked tasks for students with attention difficulties.
  - Positive behavior reinforcement and cues.
  - Clear routines and visual schedules.

5. Social and Communication Supports

- Peer pairing or buddy systems.
  - Role-play and interactive games to support communication practice.
  - Scripted dialogues for students with social communication needs.
  - Explicit teaching of social norms and cultural context.

6. Grading and Evaluation Modifications

- Modified grading criteria focusing on effort, participation, or improvement.
- Use of rubrics with clear, simplified expectations.
- Feedback focused on strengths and progress.

Acceleration

The following are lists of general acceleration strategies/ activities that be offered to students depending on their ability/ proficiency level:

Acceleration Strategies for Gifted Learners

1. Independent Study or Projects

- Allow students to choose a topic related to the language or culture and explore it in depth (e.g., music, history, literature, cuisine, current events).
- Can be presented as multimedia, presentations, essays, or portfolios.

2. Tiered Assignments

- Provide tasks that match or exceed the student's proficiency level (e.g., using more complex verb tenses or vocabulary earlier).
- Allow for open-ended questions and tasks requiring analysis, synthesis, or evaluation.

3. Novel or Authentic Texts

- Assign authentic reading and listening materials (e.g., news articles, podcasts, poems, or short stories in the target language).
- Provide discussion or analysis tasks afterward.

4. Advanced Grammar and Vocabulary

- Introduce complex grammar structures (e.g., subjunctive mood, idiomatic expressions) earlier than the class.
- Use higher-level vocabulary in assignments and conversations.

5. Foreign Language for Specific Purposes (FLSP)

- Tailor mini-units to student interests (e.g., business Spanish, medical French, travel-focused vocabulary).

6. Dual Language Exploration

- Let them compare two world languages or translate between their native language and the target one.
- Introduce etymology and language families.

7. Mentorship or Peer Tutoring

- Allow them to tutor classmates or lead group discussions.
- Pair with a language teacher or native speaker mentor for conversation practice.

Sample Enrichment Activities for Gifted Students

- Create a digital storybook or video diary in the target language.
- Write and perform a short play or skit using extended vocabulary and grammar.
- Translate songs, poems, or short stories from English to the target language.
- Create a blog, vlog, or podcast about language and cultural topics.
- Debate or discuss current global issues in the target language.
- Join or create a language club or participate in language competitions.
- Explore cultural comparisons—e.g., compare government systems, education, or family life across countries.

Stage III: Learning Plan

In this unit, students will understand and respond appropriately to expressions commonly used in Spanish class. (1 week)

- Lesson 1: Pgs. 10-11 review phrases from beginning of school year and add new ones ACTIONS (1-2 days)
- Lesson 2: pgs. 10-11 listening from workbook (1-2 days)
- Review with partners all vocabulary mini dialogs / games / SIMON SAYS (3 days)
- Unit Assessment (Formative presentational / interpretive / interpersonal modes) (ROBOT ASSESSMENT)

Diversity, Equity, & Inclusion

NB World Language department believes that effective world language instruction promotes and advances social justice by affirming the dignity of students, languages, and cultures. To this aim, the revised standards afford each student the opportunity to use the target language to tell their own stories and to value and advocate for equity, global awareness, and intercultural understanding. The department recognizes the need to encourage dialogue and relationships on equal terms and empower the students to advocate for themselves and others by providing the tools for ongoing inclusive and equitable communication.
