Technology Integration

Technology Integration

Northern supports the integration of the SAMR Model: a framework which extends learning through the use of technology. The installation of interactive boards, the purchase of softwares and subscriptions, and the investment in 1:1 laptops and various other instructional technologies are examples of Northern's commitment to enhancing students' learning and preparing the 21st century learner for college and careers.

STAGE III Learning Plan

STAGE III Learning Plan

Organize plan by weeks

Specific Instruction and Learning Activities:

- Read articles or literary selections either on covering a wide range of topics and vocabulary.
- Write a multitude of short response paragraphs to questions presented by the teacher.
- Essays: These essays will generally range 100-150+ words. These will be graded on the AP scoring scale.
- Listen to oral presentations, take notes and be able to respond with comments, questions or written reviews.
- Listen to taped stories and other selections, take notes based on their comprehension of the material and complete listening comprehension quizzes in preparation for the AP Exam.
- Practice speaking skills in a variety of activities --directed response, storytelling, simulated scenarios, interviews and oral improvisations.
- Contribute to class discussions, conversations and summaries of reading selections.
- Prepare, narrate and tape stories using 2-minute tapes. Most of these stories will be based on pictures distributed in class and will be completed approximately every two weeks throughout the school year.
- There will be at least one major oral and one major written project assigned each quarter. This project will be a group project with groups determined by the instructor. Many projects required library research by the student. Planned projects include debates, story telling, PowerPoints, posters, skits or the design and creation of a children's book.

Diversity, Equity, & Inclusion

Diversity, Equity & Inclusion

NB World Language department believes that effective world language instruction promotes and advances social justice by affirming the dignity of students, languages, and cultures. To this aim, the revised standards afford each student the opportunity to use the target language to tell their own stories and to value and advocate for equity, global awareness, and intercultural understanding. The department recognizes the need to encourage dialogue and relationships on equal terms and empower the students to advocate for themselves and others by providing the tools for ongoing inclusive and equitable communication.
