

Name: _____

Science Unit 1 Assessment

Directions: Circle the correct answer.

1. An animal's young is called their _____.
 - A. habitat
 - B. offspring
2. Some animal parents protect their offspring by _____.
 - A. feeding and protecting them
 - B. attracting predators
3. Do all animals help their offspring survive?
 - A. Yes
 - B. No
4. Traits are behaviors and body features that are passed down from parents to offspring.
 - A. True
 - B. False
5. Plant and animal offspring are exactly like their parents in every way.
 - A. True
 - B. False

6.

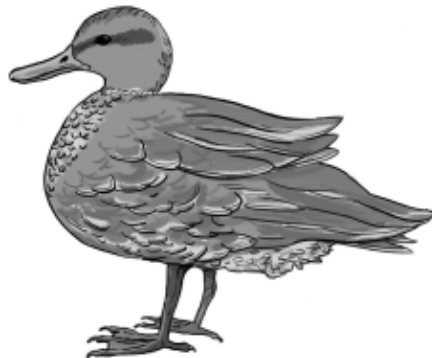

Draw an arrow between the baby and the adult bird that is its parent. Circle all the traits that helped you match them.

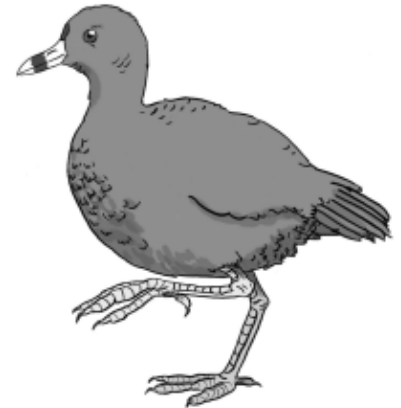

Baby Bird

Adult #1

Adult #2

Adult #3

7. A rabbit builds a nest in the ground and places its offspring inside. How does the rabbit help its offspring survive?

- A. Provides shelter
- B. Feeds
- C. Teaches
- D. Protects

8. A bird brings worms and insects to its offspring in the nest. How does the bird help its offspring survive?

- A. Provides shelter
- B. Feeds
- C. Teaches
- D. Protects