Rationale & Transfer Goals

This unit will focus on gaining a deeper understanding of the United States. Students will learn about the geography of the United States and why it was attractive to European Settlers. Students will learn why and how Europeans migrated to and settled in the United States and the conflicts that it caused with Native Americans. Students will learn the founders' basic ideas about government and how these American values are reflected in the Constitution and Bill of Rights. Students will also learn about American monuments and symbols that represent America's values and cultural diversity.

Enduring Understandings

- The founders of the United States believed that human beings had certain natural rights (life, liberty, property) and laws and rules needed to be created in order to protect these rights.
- In a democracy people elect individuals to represent their views.
