Content Area: Theater
Course(s):
Time Period:
Length: 2 Weeks
Status: Published

Targeted Standards

VPA.1.1.12.C.1	Analyze examples of theatre's influence on history and history's influence on theatre in Western and non-Western theatre traditions.
VPA.1.1.12.C.2	Formulate a process of script analysis to identify how the physical, emotional, and social dimensions of a character are communicated through the application of acting techniques.
VPA.1.1.12.C.3	Apply the basic physical and chemical properties (e.g., light, electricity, color, paint, scenic construction, costumes, makeup, and audio components) inherent in technical theatre to safely implement theatre design.
VPA.1.1.12.C.CS2	Characters have physical, emotional, and social dimensions that can be communicated through the application of acting techniques.
VPA.1.1.12.C.CS3	Theatre production is an art, but it is also a science requiring knowledge of safety procedures, materials, technology, and construction techniques.
VPA.1.3.12.C.2	Create and evaluate performances by citing evidence of specific physical choices, sustained vocal technique, and clearly motivated actions.
VPA.1.3.12.C.CS1	Effective scripted and improvisational performances require informed, supported, and sustained choices by actors, directors, and designers. Theatre genres are created by combining complex narrative structures, technical theatrical elements, and thematic intent.

Rationale & Transfer Goals

Demonstrating theatrical classroom awareness and personal resources that will allow students to be comfortable in the classroom with peers and the teacher. Reviewing and implementing theatre safety in regards to space: personal/others', respecting each other, and stage/classroom safety. Mastering performance abilities within one's own body and voice. Participation of Theatre in everyday life and communities near and far, with demonstration and understanding of how one can become involved and/or an advocate.

Enduring Understandings - What are the most essential conclusions that students should be guided towards throughout this unit?
