Rationale & Transfer Goals

The month of September is celebrated in the United States as the month of Hispanic Heritage. As the teaching of language and culture are inextricably intertwined, students learn to understand the culture of the people who speak the target language through learning about the products and practices of the culture and how those relate to the perspectives of the people of that culture. The focus of this unit is to expose students to the largest cultural group in the United States, Hispanics, and the contributions they have made to this country and to the world.
