ELA.SL.PI.K.4	Describe familiar people, places, things, and events and, with prompting and support, provide additional detail.
ELA.SL.UM.K.5	Add drawings or other visual displays to descriptions as desired to provide additional detail.
ELA.SL.AS.K.6	Speak audibly and express thoughts, feelings, and ideas clearly.

Rationale and Transfer Goals

Overview of Framing Your Thoughts:

Framing Your Thoughts is a supplementary scripted program that begins with breaking sentences down to their component parts using sentence frames, symbols, and hand signals. These lessons start with identifying subjects and predicates, their functions, and then applying this knowledge in the creation of their own sentences. This teaches students ways to build sentences with more complexity.

Format of a Lesson:

- Anticipatory Set
 - Input/Direct Statement
 - Model (I Do)
 - Active Participation (We Do)
 - Checking for Understanding (You Do)

Overview of the Writing Workshop Framework:

Writing Workshop is a framework for writing instruction that includes a whole group mini-lesson, independent writing time, conferencing with groups and individuals, and sharing writing with peers and classmates. The purpose is to guide students as they write across genres and to develop independent, engaged writers. Minilessons range from management to genre exploration to craft techniques to editing. Teachers analyze student writing and look at skill progressions to make instructional decisions.

Format of a Lesson:

- Mini-Lesson
- Independent writing/conferencing
- Closure/sharing

Enduring Understandings

General Writing

1. Kindergarten students can construct simple sentences using basic vocabulary and proper word order to convey ideas clearly.
2. Kindergarten students can create narratives by expressing their ideas through pictures, dictation, or simple sentences, showing an understanding that stories have a beginning, middle, and end.
3. Kindergarten students can use foundational writing mechanics, such as holding a pencil correctly, forming letters and simple words legibly, and understanding basic punctuation and capitalization rules to communicate effectively through writing.

Personal Narrative Writing

1. Kindergarten students can share personal experiences and feelings through simple stories and sentences.

2. Kindergarten students understand that personal narratives have a beginning, middle, and end.
3. Kindergarten students can use descriptive words and details to make their personal narratives more engaging.
4. Kindergarten students recognize the importance of sharing their own stories with others.
5. Kindergarten students begin to understand the concept of audience and purpose in personal narrative writing.

Essential Questions

General Writing

1. Why do we write?
2. How do we make our writing clear for others to understand?
3. What happens when we put our ideas into writing?
4. How can we improve our writing?
5. What makes a good story?

Personal Narrative Writing

1. What is something special or memorable that has happened to you?
2. How did you feel during that experience?
3. Why is it important to share our personal stories with others?
4. How can we use details to make our stories more interesting?
5. How can we organize our personal stories so others can understand them?

Life Literacies & Key Skills

Life Literacies

Understanding Visuals: Teach children how to interpret and create visual elements in their stories, like illustrations and photographs.

Asking Questions: Encourage curiosity and teach children how to ask questions to gather information for their stories.

Key Skills

- Communication Skills:
- Oral Expression: Develop speaking skills by having children share their stories aloud.
- Listening Skills: Teach active listening by having children listen to their peers' stories and provide positive feedback.
- Vocabulary Building: Expand vocabulary through storytelling, encouraging the use of descriptive words
- Fine Motor Skills:
- Handwriting: Practice fine motor skills through letter formation and writing.
- Drawing and Crafting: Use drawing as a complementary skill to writing, which also develops hand-eye coordination.
