Rationale

This unit delves into the theme of Friendship. Through exploration of various texts such as the novel "Tight" by Torrey Maldonado and other district approved sources, students will delve into the complexities of friendships and their impact on personal growth and relationships. Students will engage in reading, writing, and discussions exploring the causes and impacts of changes at global and personal levels. By the conclusion of the unit, students will demonstrate their understanding of the theme of friendship by synthesizing examples from both fiction and non-fiction texts. They will be able to articulate their thoughts, incorporate the ideas of others, and compare and contrast elements across different texts. Additionally, students will produce clear and coherent writing pieces tailored to specific tasks, purposes, and audiences.

Mastery will be assessed through a benchmark focusing on students' capacity to analyze and compare the dynamics. Additionally, this unit will assess students' proficiency in writing opinion pieces, emphasizing their ability to delve deeply into friendship themes and effectively communicate their understanding and insights.
