Targeted ELA Standards

Add the appropriate NJSLS ELA standards with which this unit aligns. This is done by clicking "actions" and then "add standards".

ELA.L.SS.8.1	Demonstrate command of the system and structure of the English language when writing or speaking.
ELA.L.KL.8.2	Use knowledge of language and its conventions when writing, speaking, reading, or listening.
ELA.L.VL.8.3	Determine or clarify the meaning of unknown and multiple-meaning words or phrases based on grade 8 reading and content, including technical meanings, choosing flexibly from a range of strategies.
ELA.L.VI.8.4	Demonstrate understanding of figurative language, word relationships, and nuances in word meanings.
ELA.RL.CR.8.1	Cite a range of textual evidence and make clear and relevant connections to strongly support an analysis of multiple aspects of what a literary text says explicitly as well as inferences drawn from the text.

ELA.RI.CR.8.1	Cite a range of textual evidence and make clear and relevant connections (including informational text features such as charts, graphs, and diagrams) that strongly support an analysis of multiple aspects of what an informational text says explicitly, as well as inferences drawn from the text.
ELA.RL.CI.8.2	Determine a theme of a literary text and how it is conveyed through particular details; provide a summary of the text distinct from personal opinions or judgments.
ELA.RI.CI.8.2	Determine a central idea of an informational text and how it is conveyed through particular details; provide a summary of the text distinct from personal opinions or judgments.
ELA.RL.IT.8.3	Analyze how particular elements of a text interact (e.g., how setting shapes the characters or plot, how ideas influence individuals or events, or how characters influence ideas or events) across multiple text types, including across literary and informational texts.
ELA.RI.IT.8.3	Analyze how particular elements of a text interact (e.g., how contexts influence individuals or events, or how individuals influence ideas or events) across multiple text types, including across literary and informational texts.
ELA.RL.TS.8.4	Compare and contrast the structure of texts, analyzing how the differing structure of each text contributes to its meaning, tone and style.
ELA.RL.PP.8.5	Analyze how an author conveys or develops their perspective or purpose in a text through the use of different perspectives of the characters and that of the audience or reader (e.g., created through the use of dramatic irony).
ELA.W.NW.8.3	Write narratives to develop real or imagined experiences or events using effective technique, relevant descriptive details, and well-structured event sequences.
ELA.W.WP.8.4	With some guidance and support from peers and adults, develop and strengthen writing as needed by planning, sustaining effort to complete complex writing tasks; seeking out assistance, models, sources or feedback to improve understanding or refine final products; focusing on how well purpose and audience have been addressed.
ELA.W.RW.8.7	Write routinely over extended time frames (time for research, reflection, metacognition/self-correction, and revision) and shorter time frames (a single sitting or a day or two) for a range of discipline-specific tasks, purposes, and audiences.
ELA.SL.PE.8.1	Engage effectively in a range of collaborative discussions (one-on-one, in groups, and teacher-led) with diverse partners on grade 8 topics, texts, and issues, building on others' ideas and expressing their own clearly.
ELA.SL.PI.8.4	Present claims and findings, emphasizing salient points in a focused, coherent manner with relevant evidence, sound valid reasoning, and well-chosen details; use appropriate eye contact, adequate volume, and clear pronunciation.
ELA.SL.AS.8.6	Adapt speech to a variety of contexts and tasks, demonstrating command of formal English when indicated or appropriate.

Rationale

The theme of this unit centers on Exploration. The recommended texts for this unit include "Long Way Down" by Jason Reynolds and other district-approved text. By exploring both fiction and nonfiction examples, students will analyze how characters exhibit perseverance in the face of adversity, drawing insights from the narrative of "Long Way Down" to explore how exploration fosters personal growth and resilience. By the end of this unit, students will understand that exploration is a journey of self-discovery that challenges perceptions and broadens perspectives.

Mastery will be evaluated through a benchmark test that assesses students' ability to determine theme and central ideas, cite textual evidence, draw conclusions, and analyze various elements of the text. The unit will further assess students' proficiency in narrative writing, emphasizing their ability to explore topics thoroughly and convey ideas clearly and effectively. Additionally, students will engage in discussions and collaborative activities to demonstrate their understanding of how exploration involves a journey of self-discovery that challenges perspectives and expands understanding. These activities will develop students' critical thinking, reading, writing, and communication skills, essential for both academic growth and personal development.

Enduring Understandings

Overarching Understanding

Exploration involves a journey of self-discovery that challenges perspectives and expands understanding, leading to personal growth and resilience.

Content Specific	Skills Specific
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Through analyzing "Long Way Down" by Jason Reynolds and related texts, students will explore the transformative power of exploration, examining how characters navigate inner and outer conflicts on their paths of self-discovery. • Societal views of "normal" can play a large role in who we think we are and how others view us. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Engaging in narrative writing, students will develop the ability to craft compelling stories that reflect complexities, utilize narrative techniques to convey specific themes. • Good readers analyze the theme or central idea over the course of the text. • Good readers analyze lines of the text that reveal information about the plot, setting, and character. • Good readers determine the meaning and connotation of words, figurative language, and tone of the text.

Essential Questions

Overarching Understanding

How does exploration contribute to personal growth and change?

What defines "normal" and how does it shape our identity and interactions?

Content Specific	Skills Specific
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • How do characters in "Long Way Down" embark on journeys of self-exploration? • What are the challenges and rewards of exploring inner conflicts and moral dilemmas? • How do different narrative techniques help convey the themes of exploration and self-discovery in storytelling? 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • How can narrative writing effectively capture the complexities of personal exploration and growth? • What methods can writers employ to craft compelling characters and intricate plotlines? • How do structured sequences and vivid details contribute to creating engaging narratives?

Spiraling for Mastery

Content or Skill for this Unit	Spiral Focus from Previous Unit
Understanding parts of speech. Using context clues for vocabulary. Understanding plot, setting, and character. Developing coherent paragraphs and arguments.	Applying advanced vocabulary and context clues for complex texts. Analyzing and using figurative language and tone. Deepening analysis of themes and character development over the course of the text. Crafting complex narratives with effective use of narrative techniques.

Career Readiness, Life Literacies, and Key Skills

Please tag the appropriate 2020 NJSL-CLKS standards that align with the grade band and content/skills of this unit. This is done by clicking "actions" and then "add standards".

CRP.K-12.CRP1.1	Career-ready individuals understand the obligations and responsibilities of being a member of a community, and they demonstrate this understanding every day through their interactions with others. They are conscientious of the impacts of their decisions on others and the environment around them. They think about the near-term and long-term consequences of their actions and seek to act in ways that contribute to the betterment of their teams, families, community and workplace. They are reliable and consistent in going beyond the minimum expectation and in participating in activities that serve the greater good.
CRP.K-12.CRP2.1	Career-ready individuals readily access and use the knowledge and skills acquired through experience and education to be more productive. They make connections between abstract concepts with real-world applications, and they make correct insights about when it is appropriate to apply the use of an academic skill in a workplace situation.
CRP.K-12.CRP4.1	Career-ready individuals communicate thoughts, ideas, and action plans with clarity, whether using written, verbal, and/or visual methods. They communicate in the workplace with clarity and purpose to make maximum use of their own and others' time. They are excellent writers; they master conventions, word choice, and organization, and use effective tone and presentation skills to articulate ideas. They are skilled at interacting with others; they are active listeners and speak clearly and with purpose. Career-ready individuals think about the audience for their communication and prepare accordingly to ensure the desired outcome.
CRP.K-12.CRP6.1	Career-ready individuals regularly think of ideas that solve problems in new and different ways, and they contribute those ideas in a useful and productive manner to improve their organization. They can consider unconventional ideas and suggestions as solutions to issues, tasks or problems, and they discern which ideas and suggestions will add greatest value. They seek new methods, practices, and ideas from a variety of sources and seek to apply those ideas to their own workplace. They take action on their ideas and understand how to bring innovation to an organization.
CRP.K-12.CRP7.1	Career-ready individuals are discerning in accepting and using new information to make decisions, change practices or inform strategies. They use reliable research process to search for new information. They evaluate the validity of sources when considering the use and adoption of external information or practices in their workplace situation.

CRP.K-12.CRP8.1

Career-ready individuals readily recognize problems in the workplace, understand the nature of the problem, and devise effective plans to solve the problem. They are aware of problems when they occur and take action quickly to address the problem; they thoughtfully investigate the root cause of the problem prior to introducing solutions. They carefully consider the options to solve the problem. Once a solution is agreed upon, they follow through to ensure the problem is solved, whether through their own actions or the actions of others.
