Targeted ELA Standards

Add the appropriate NJSLS ELA standards with which this unit aligns. This is done by clicking "actions" and then "add standards".

ELA.L.SS.9–10.1	Demonstrate command of the system and structure of the English language when writing or speaking.
ELA.L.KL.9–10.2	Apply knowledge of language to make effective choices for meaning, or style, and to comprehend more fully when reading, writing, speaking or listening.
ELA.L.VL.9–10.3	Determine or clarify the meaning of unknown and multiple-meaning words and phrases based on grades 9–10 reading and content, including technical meanings, choosing flexibly from a range of strategies.
ELA.L.VI.9–10.4	Demonstrate understanding of figurative language, word relationships, and nuances in word meanings, including connotative meanings.
ELA.RL.CR.9–10.1	Cite a range of thorough textual evidence and make relevant connections to strongly support analysis of multiple aspects of what a literary text says explicitly and inferentially, as well as including determining where the text leaves matters uncertain.
ELA.RI.CR.9–10.1	Cite a range and thorough textual evidence and make clear and relevant connections, to strongly support an analysis of multiple aspects of what an informational text says explicitly and inferentially, as well as interpretations of the text.

ELA.RL.CI.9–10.2	Determine one or more themes of a literary text and analyze how it is developed and refined over the course of the text, including how it emerges and is shaped by specific details; provide an objective summary of the text.
ELA.RI.CI.9–10.2	Determine one or more central ideas of an informational text and analyze how it is developed and refined over the course of a text, including how it emerges and is shaped by specific details; provide an objective summary of the text.
ELA.RL.IT.9–10.3	Analyze how an author unfolds and develops ideas throughout a text, including how complex characters (e.g., those with multiple or conflicting motivations) develop, interact with other characters, and advance the plot or develop the theme.
ELA.RI.IT.9–10.3	Analyze how an author unfolds ideas throughout the text, including the order in which the points are made, how they are introduced and developed, and the connections that are drawn between them.
ELA.RL.TS.9–10.4	Analyze how an author’s choices concerning the structure of a text, order of the events within it (e.g., parallel plots), and manipulation of time (e.g., pacing, flashbacks) create specific effects (e.g., mystery, tension, or surprise).
ELA.RL.PP.9–10.5	Determine an author’s lens in a text (including cultural experience reflected in a work of literature from outside the United States, drawing on a wide reading of world literature) and analyze how an author uses rhetorical devices to advance a point of view.
ELA.RL.MF.9–10.6	Analyze, integrate, and evaluate multiple interpretations (e.g., recorded or live production of a play or recorded novel or poetry) of a single text or text/s presented in different formats (visually, quantitatively).
ELA.RI.MF.9–10.6	Analyze, integrate, and evaluate multiple interpretations (e.g., charts, graphs, diagrams, videos) of a single text or text/s presented in different formats (visually, quantitatively) as well as in words in order to address a question or solve a problem.
ELA.RI.AA.9–10.7	Describe and evaluate the argument and specific claims in an informational text, assessing whether the reasoning is valid and the evidence is relevant and sufficient; identify false statements and reasoning.
ELA.W.AW.9–10.1	Write arguments to support claims in an analysis of substantive topics or texts, using valid reasoning and relevant and sufficient textual and non-textual evidence.
ELA.W.WP.9–10.4	Develop and strengthen writing as needed by planning, revising, editing, rewriting, trying a new approach; sustaining effort to complete complex writing tasks; seeking out feedback and reflecting on personal writing progress; consulting a style manual (such as MLA or APA Style), focusing on addressing what is most significant for a specific purpose and audience.
ELA.W.RW.9–10.7	Write routinely over extended time frames (time for research, reflection, and revision) and shorter time frames (a single sitting or a day or two) for a range of tasks, purposes, and audiences.
ELA.SL.PE.9–10.1	Initiate and participate effectively in a range of collaborative discussions (one-on-one, in groups, and teacher-led) with peers on grades 9–10 topics, texts, and issues, building on others’ ideas and expressing their own clearly and persuasively.
ELA.SL.II.9–10.2	Integrate multiple sources of information presented in diverse media or formats (e.g., visually, quantitatively, qualitatively, orally) evaluating the credibility and accuracy of each source.
ELA.SL.ES.9–10.3	Evaluate a speaker’s point of view, reasoning, and use of evidence and rhetoric, identifying any false reasoning or distorted evidence.
ELA.SL.PI.9–10.4	Present information, findings, and supporting evidence clearly, concisely, and logically. The content, organization, development, and style are appropriate to task, purpose, and audience.
ELA.SL.AS.9–10.6	Adapt speech to a variety of contexts and tasks, demonstrating command of formal English.

Rationale

This unit on adversity and justice, anchored by the study of "To Kill a Mockingbird," prepares students for both academic growth and real-world challenges. By exploring complex themes through literature, students develop critical thinking and analytical skills, learning to identify and articulate nuanced perspectives on social issues. Engaging in argumentative writing and collaborative discussions equips them with the ability to construct and defend well-reasoned viewpoints, fostering effective communication. Ultimately, this unit empowers students to become empathetic and informed individuals, capable of advocating for justice and addressing adversity in their communities, thus preparing them for active and responsible citizenship beyond the classroom.

Mastery of the standards of this unit will be shown through students' performance on the benchmark and summative assessments by progressively building their analytical and argumentative skills. Through close reading and discussion of "To Kill a Mockingbird," students will practice citing textual evidence and analyzing complex characters and themes, which are essential for their assessments. Writing assignments throughout the unit will hone their ability to craft coherent and persuasive arguments, while peer and teacher feedback will guide their revisions and improvements. Additionally, engaging with diverse media and formats will help them evaluate sources critically, ensuring they can effectively support their claims. By the end of the unit, students will be well-equipped to demonstrate their understanding and analysis in both written and oral assessments.

Enduring Understandings

- Standard: ELA.L.VL.9–10.3

4. Understand Figurative Language and Word Nuances

- Skill: Interpret and analyze figurative language and nuances in word meanings, including connotations.
- Standard: ELA.L.VI.9–10.4

Reading Skills

1. Cite Textual Evidence

- Skill: Provide strong and thorough evidence from texts to support analysis and interpretation.
- Standards: ELA.RL.CR.9–10.1, ELA.RI.CR.9–10.1

2. Determine Themes and Central Ideas

- Skill: Identify and analyze themes or central ideas and understand how they develop and are refined in a text.
- Standards: ELA.RL.CI.9–10.2, ELA.RI.CI.9–10.2

3. Analyze Author's Development of Ideas

- Skill: Examine how an author develops ideas, characters, and themes throughout a text.
- Standards: ELA.RL.IT.9–10.3, ELA.RI.IT.9–10.3

4. Determine Author's Lens and Rhetorical Devices

- Skill: Identify the author's perspective and analyze the use of rhetorical devices to advance a point of view.
- Standard: ELA.RL.PP.9–10.5

5. Evaluate Multiple Interpretations

3. Textual Evidence and Analysis (ELA.RL.CR.9–10.1 & ELA.RI.CR.9–10.1):

- Previous Unit Focus: Citing textual evidence to support analysis of literary and informational texts.
- Current Unit Application: Students will strengthen their ability to cite relevant evidence and make connections to support their analysis of new texts.

4. Theme and Central Ideas (ELA.RL.CI.9–10.2 & ELA.RI.CI.9–10.2):

- Previous Unit Focus: Determining and analyzing themes and central ideas in texts.
- Current Unit Application: Students will build on their understanding of theme and central ideas by analyzing how these elements develop and are refined throughout new texts.

5. Development of Ideas and Complex Characters (ELA.RL.IT.9–10.3 & ELA.RI.IT.9–10.3):

- Previous Unit Focus: Analyzing how authors develop ideas and characters.
- Current Unit Application: Students will further explore how authors develop complex characters and ideas in their current texts, paying attention to character motivations and plot development.

6. Author's Choices and Rhetorical Devices (ELA.RI.TS.9–10.4 & ELA.RL.PP.9–10.5):

- Previous Unit Focus: Analyzing authors' structural choices and rhetorical devices.
- Current Unit Application: Students will evaluate how authors' choices impact the effectiveness of their arguments and narrative strategies in new texts.

7. Evaluating Arguments (ELA.RI.AA.9–10.7):

- Previous Unit Focus: Evaluating the validity of arguments and evidence in informational texts.
- Current Unit Application: Students will practice assessing the reasoning and evidence in current texts to develop their critical thinking and analytical skills.

- Skill: Assess and integrate different interpretations and formats of a text.
- Standards: ELA.RL.MF.9–10.6, ELA.RI.MF.9–10.6

6. Describe and Evaluate Arguments and Claims

- Skill: Analyze and evaluate arguments and claims in informational texts for validity, relevance, and sufficiency of evidence.
- Standard: ELA.RI.AA.9–10.7
