Targeted ELA Standards

Add the appropriate NJSLS ELA standards with which this unit aligns. This is done by clicking "actions" and then "add standards".

L.SS.9–10.1	Demonstrate command of the system and structure of the English language when writing or speaking.
L.SS.9–10.1.A	Use parallel structure.
L.SS.9–10.1.B	Use various types of phrases (noun, verb, adjectival, adverbial, participial, prepositional, absolute) and clauses (independent, dependent; noun, relative, adverbial) to convey specific meanings and add variety and interest to writing or presentations.
L.SS.9–10.1.C	Use a semicolon (and perhaps a conjunctive adverb) to link two or more closely related independent clauses.
L.SS.9–10.1.D	Use a colon to introduce a list or quotation.
L.SS.9–10.1.E	Recognize spelling conventions.
L.KL.9–10.2	Apply knowledge of language to make effective choices for meaning, or style, and to comprehend more fully when reading, writing, speaking or listening.
L.KL.9–10.2.A	Acquire and use accurately general academic and domain-specific words and phrases, sufficient for reading, writing, speaking, and listening at the college and career readiness level.
L.KL.9–10.2.B	Vary word choice and sentence structure to demonstrate an understanding of the influence of language.
L.KL.9–10.2.C	Demonstrate independence in gathering vocabulary knowledge when considering a word or phrase important to comprehension or expression.

L.VL.9–10.3	Determine or clarify the meaning of unknown and multiple-meaning words and phrases based on grades 9–10 reading and content, including technical meanings, choosing flexibly from a range of strategies.
L.VL.9–10.3.A	Use context (e.g., the overall meaning of a sentence, paragraph, or text; a word's position or function in a sentence) as a clue to the meaning of a word or phrase.
L.VL.9–10.3.B	Identify and correctly use patterns of word changes that indicate different meanings or parts of speech (e.g., analyze, analysis, analytical; advocate, advocacy).
L.VL.9–10.3.D	Consult general and specialized reference materials (e.g., dictionaries, glossaries, thesauruses), both print and digital, to find the pronunciation of a word or determine or clarify its precise meaning, its part of speech, or its etymology.
L.VL.9–10.3.E	Verify the preliminary determination of the meaning of a word or phrase (e.g., by checking the inferred meaning in context or in a dictionary).
L.VI.9–10.4	Demonstrate understanding of figurative language, word relationships, and nuances in word meanings, including connotative meanings.
L.VI.9–10.4.A	Interpret figures of speech (e.g., euphemism, oxymoron) in context and analyze their role in the text.
L.VI.9–10.4.B	Analyze nuances in the meaning of words with similar denotations.
L.VI.9–10.4.C	Analyze the cumulative impact of specific word choices on meaning and tone (e.g., how the language evokes a sense of time and place; how it sets a formal or informal tone; how the language of a court opinion differs from that of a newspaper).
RL.CR.9–10.1	Cite a range of thorough textual evidence and make relevant connections to strongly support analysis of multiple aspects of what a literary text says explicitly and inferentially, as well as including determining where the text leaves matters uncertain.
RI.CR.9–10.1	Cite a range and thorough textual evidence and make clear and relevant connections, to strongly support an analysis of multiple aspects of what an informational text says explicitly and inferentially, as well as interpretations of the text.
RL.CI.9–10.2	Determine one or more themes of a literary text and analyze how it is developed and refined over the course of the text, including how it emerges and is shaped by specific details; provide an objective summary of the text.
RI.CI.9–10.2	Determine one or more central ideas of an informational text and analyze how it is developed and refined over the course of a text, including how it emerges and is shaped by specific details; provide an objective summary of the text.
RL.IT.9–10.3	Analyze how an author unfolds and develops ideas throughout a text, including how complex characters (e.g., those with multiple or conflicting motivations) develop, interact with other characters, and advance the plot or develop the theme.
RI.IT.9–10.3	Analyze how an author unfolds ideas throughout the text, including the order in which the points are made, how they are introduced and developed, and the connections that are drawn between them.
RL.TS.9–10.4	Analyze how an author's choices concerning the structure of a text, order of the events within it (e.g., parallel plots), and manipulation of time (e.g., pacing, flashbacks) create specific effects (e.g., mystery, tension, or surprise).
RL.PP.9–10.5	Determine an author's lens in a text (including cultural experience reflected in a work of literature from outside the United States, drawing on a wide reading of world literature) and analyze how an author uses rhetorical devices to advance a point of view.
RL.MF.9–10.6	Analyze, integrate, and evaluate multiple interpretations (e.g., recorded or live production of a play or recorded novel or poetry) of a single text or text/s presented in different formats (visually, quantitatively).
RI.MF.9–10.6	Analyze, integrate, and evaluate multiple interpretations (e.g., charts, graphs, diagrams, videos) of a single text or text/s presented in different formats (visually, quantitatively) as well as in words in order to address a question or solve a problem.

RI.AA.9–10.7	Describe and evaluate the argument and specific claims in an informational text, assessing whether the reasoning is valid and the evidence is relevant and sufficient; identify false statements and reasoning.
W.NW.9–10.3	Write narratives to develop real or imagined experiences or events using effective technique, well-chosen details, and well-structured event sequences.
W.NW.9–10.3.A	Engage and orient the reader by setting out a problem, situation, or observation, establishing one or multiple point(s) of view, and introducing a narrator and/or characters; create a smooth progression of experiences or events.
W.NW.9–10.3.B	Use narrative techniques, such as dialogue, pacing, description, reflection, and multiple plot lines, to develop experiences, events, and/or characters.
W.NW.9–10.3.C	Use a variety of techniques to sequence events so that they build on one another to create a coherent whole.
W.NW.9–10.3.D	Use precise words and phrases, telling details, and sensory language to convey a vivid picture of the experiences, events, setting, and/or characters.
W.NW.9–10.3.E	Provide a conclusion that follows from and reflects on what is experienced, observed, or resolved over the course of the narrative.
W.WP.9–10.4	Develop and strengthen writing as needed by planning, revising, editing, rewriting, trying a new approach; sustaining effort to complete complex writing tasks; seeking out feedback and reflecting on personal writing progress; consulting a style manual (such as MLA or APA Style), focusing on addressing what is most significant for a specific purpose and audience.
W.RW.9–10.7	Write routinely over extended time frames (time for research, reflection, and revision) and shorter time frames (a single sitting or a day or two) for a range of tasks, purposes, and audiences.
SL.PE.9–10.1	Initiate and participate effectively in a range of collaborative discussions (one-on-one, in groups, and teacher-led) with peers on grades 9–10 topics, texts, and issues, building on others' ideas and expressing their own clearly and persuasively.
SL.PE.9–10.1.A	Come to discussions prepared, having read and researched material under study; explicitly draw on that preparation by referring to evidence from texts and other research on the topic or issue to stimulate a thoughtful, well-reasoned exchange of ideas.
SL.PE.9–10.1.C	Propel conversations by posing and responding to questions that relate the current discussion to broader themes or larger ideas; actively incorporate others into the discussion; and clarify, verify, or challenge ideas and conclusions.
SL.PE.9–10.1.D	Respond thoughtfully to various perspectives, summarize points of agreement and disagreement, and justify own views. Make new connections in light of the evidence and reasoning presented.
SL.II.9–10.2	Integrate multiple sources of information presented in diverse media or formats (e.g., visually, quantitatively, qualitatively, orally) evaluating the credibility and accuracy of each source.
SL.ES.9–10.3	Evaluate a speaker's point of view, reasoning, and use of evidence and rhetoric, identifying any false reasoning or distorted evidence.
SL.PI.9–10.4	Present information, findings, and supporting evidence clearly, concisely, and logically. The content, organization, development, and style are appropriate to task, purpose, and audience.
SL.AS.9–10.6	Adapt speech to a variety of contexts and tasks, demonstrating command of formal English.

Rationale

This unit examines themes of justice, prejudice, empathy, and moral courage through the study of To Kill a Mockingbird. Using the novel as the anchor text, students explore how Harper Lee challenges readers to confront issues of racial inequality, social injustice, and ethical responsibility within the context of the American South during the Great Depression. By pairing the novel with primary sources, historical documents, informational texts, and contemporary perspectives, students investigate how literature reflects historical realities and continues to influence conversations about justice, equality, and the human experience.

As the narrative writing unit, students analyze how authors use characterization, point of view, setting, dialogue, and conflict to develop meaningful stories that communicate powerful themes. Students apply these literary techniques to craft original narratives that demonstrate empathy, explore multiple perspectives, and develop authentic characters and experiences. Throughout the writing process, students strengthen their narrative writing through planning, drafting, revising, editing, and reflection while demonstrating command of standard English conventions.

Ultimately, students recognize that storytelling has the power to foster empathy, challenge injustice, and amplify voices that inspire individuals to create a more just and compassionate society.

Enduring Understandings

Content Specific	Skills Specific
Justice and Moral Courage Individuals have the capacity to challenge injustice by demonstrating integrity, courage, and a commitment to doing what is right, even when faced with opposition or social pressure.	Literary Analysis Close reading and textual analysis enable readers to examine how authors develop characters, themes, conflicts, and perspectives to communicate meaningful ideas.
Empathy and Perspective Understanding the experiences and perspectives of others fosters empathy, challenges prejudice, and promotes more thoughtful and compassionate decision-making.	Narrative Writing Effective narratives engage readers by developing authentic characters, meaningful conflicts, purposeful dialogue, vivid settings, and well-structured plots that communicate a central message or theme.
Prejudice and Social Inequality Bias, discrimination, and unequal systems can shape individuals' lives and communities, highlighting the importance of recognizing and confronting injustice.	Writing Process Strong writing develops through planning, drafting, revising, editing, and reflecting, allowing writers to strengthen organization, clarity, style, and effectiveness.
Literature as a Reflection of Society

Literature reflects the historical, cultural, and social values of its time while encouraging readers to examine enduring issues of justice, equality, and human dignity.	Evidence-Based Communication Readers and writers support interpretations by integrating relevant textual evidence and explaining how it contributes to meaning and analysis. Language and Conventions Effective writers use precise language, varied sentence structures, and standard English conventions to communicate ideas clearly and enhance the reader's understanding.

Honors Addendum

Historical Context

- The Scottsboro Boys Trial (primary documents or CommonLit)
- Jim Crow Laws (primary documents)
- Brown v. Board of Education (CommonLit)
- Emmett Till (informational text)

Text Comparison and Literary Analysis

Honors students will read selected chapters from Harper Lee's original novel alongside corresponding sections of the graphic novel adaptation. Students will compare and evaluate how each version develops characterization, point of view, symbolism, theme, pacing, and mood. Through close analysis, students will examine how artistic and structural choices influence meaning and the reader's interpretation of the text.

Advanced Literary Discussion

Participate in student-led Socratic Seminars that examine multiple interpretations of the novel and graphic novel using textual evidence.

Additional Honors Project

Perspective and Perception: Understanding Boo Radley

Students will create a visual presentation or poster comparing how Scout and Jem initially perceive Boo Radley, how the reader's understanding evolves throughout the novel, and how Harper Lee intentionally shapes those perspectives through characterization, point of view, and foreshadowing. Students will support their analysis with textual evidence from both the original novel and the graphic novel adaptation.

Content or Skill for this Unit	Spiral Focus from Previous Unit
Language Skills Demonstrate Command of English Language System and Structure Skill: Use standard English grammar and usage effectively in writing and speaking. Standard: ELA.L.SS.9–10.1 Apply Knowledge of Language for Meaning and Style Skill: Make effective choices in language to enhance meaning and style in various contexts. Standard: ELA.L.KL.9–10.2 Determine Meaning of Words and Phrases Skill: Use strategies to determine the meaning of unknown and multiple-meaning words and phrases. Standard: ELA.L.VL.9–10.3 Understand Figurative Language and Word Nuances Skill: Interpret and analyze figurative language, connotations, and nuances in word meanings. Standard: ELA.L.VI.9–10.4 Reading Skills Cite Textual Evidence Skill: Provide strong and thorough textual evidence to support analysis and interpretation. Standards: ELA.RL.CR.9–10.1, ELA.RI.CR.9–10.1 Determine Themes and Central Ideas Skill: Analyze how themes and central ideas develop and interact throughout literary and informational texts. Standards: ELA.RL.CI.9–10.2, ELA.RI.CI.9–10.2	1. Command of Language Structure and Style (ELA.L.SS.9–10.1 & ELA.L.KL.9–10.2) Previous Unit Focus: Emphasis on using standard English grammar, academic language, and stylistic choices to communicate research findings clearly and effectively. Current Unit Application: Students will continue refining grammar, sentence structure, and language choices while crafting literary analyses and original narratives that communicate ideas with clarity and purpose. 2. Vocabulary and Figurative Language (ELA.L.VL.9–10.3 & ELA.L.VI.9–10.4) Previous Unit Focus: Analyzing academic vocabulary, figurative language, and connotative meanings in poetry and informational texts. Current Unit Application: Students will examine Harper Lee's use of figurative language, symbolism, and diction while incorporating precise language and imagery into their own narrative writing. 3. Textual Evidence and Literary Analysis (ELA.RL.CR.9–10.1 & ELA.RI.CR.9–10.1) Previous Unit Focus: Citing evidence from literary and informational texts to support research and literary analysis. Current Unit Application: Students will continue supporting literary analysis with strong textual evidence while making connections between the novel and historical context. 4. Theme and Central Ideas (ELA.RL.CI.9–10.2 & ELA.RI.CI.9–10.2) Previous Unit Focus: Determining how authors develop themes related to identity, voice, and social change. Current Unit Application: Students will analyze how themes of justice, prejudice, empathy, and moral courage develop

Analyze Character Development Skill: Examine how complex characters develop, interact, and contribute to the development of themes and plot. Standard: ELA.RL.IT.9–10.3 Analyze Author's Craft Skill: Analyze how an author's choices regarding structure, point of view, language, and literary techniques contribute to meaning and purpose. Standards: ELA.RL.TS.9–10.4, ELA.RL.PP.9–10.5 Compare Perspectives Across Texts Skill: Analyze multiple interpretations, perspectives, and formats to deepen understanding of literary and historical issues. Standards: ELA.RL.MF.9–10.6, ELA.RI.MF.9–10.6 Writing Skills Write Narratives Skill: Develop real or imagined experiences using effective technique, well-chosen details, and well-structured event sequences. Standard: ELA.W.NW.9–10.3 Develop and Strengthen Writing Skill: Improve writing through planning, revising, editing, rewriting, and seeking feedback. Standard: ELA.W.WP.9–10.4 Use Narrative Techniques Skill: Develop characters, setting, dialogue, pacing, description, and reflection to create engaging narratives. Standard: ELA.W.NW.9–10.3 Write Routinely Skill: Write effectively over extended and shorter time frames for a variety of purposes, tasks, and audiences. Standard: ELA.W.RW.9–10.7 Speaking and Listening Skills Participate in Collaborative Discussions Skill: Engage effectively in discussions, building on others' ideas while expressing ideas clearly and respectfully. Standard: ELA.SL.PE.9–10.1	throughout To Kill a Mockingbird. 5. Character and Author's Craft (ELA.RL.IT.9–10.3, ELA.RL.TS.9–10.4 & ELA.RL.PP.9–10.5) Previous Unit Focus: Analyzing how authors develop ideas, perspectives, and literary techniques to communicate meaning. Current Unit Application: Students will examine how Harper Lee develops complex characters, point of view, structure, and symbolism to communicate themes and shape readers' perspectives. 6. Research and Historical Context (ELA.RI.CT.9–10.8 & ELA.W.WR.9–10.5) Previous Unit Focus: Conducting research, evaluating multiple sources, and synthesizing information to deepen understanding. Current Unit Application: Students will apply research skills by using historical documents and informational texts to strengthen their understanding of the novel's historical and cultural context. 7. Narrative Writing (ELA.W.NW.9–10.3) Previous Unit Focus: Analyzing how authors communicate ideas through literature and informational texts. Current Unit Application: Students will apply their understanding of characterization, dialogue, pacing, setting, and conflict to craft original narratives that communicate meaningful themes. 8. Writing Process and Revision (ELA.W.WP.9–10.4) Previous Unit Focus: Planning, drafting, revising, editing, and publishing research writing. Current Unit Application: Students will continue strengthening their writing through revision and feedback while developing polished narrative and analytical writing. 9. Routine Writing (ELA.W.RW.9–10.7) Previous Unit Focus: Writing routinely for research, reflection, and analysis. Current Unit Application: Students will write regularly through journal responses, literary analysis, narrative writing, and reflective writing tasks. 10. Career Readiness, Life Literacies, and Key 21st Century Skills

Please tag the appropriate 2020 NJSL-CLKS standards that align with the grade band and content/skills of this unit. This is done by clicking "actions" and then "add standards".

9.2.12.CAP.1	Analyze unemployment rates for workers with different levels of education and how the economic, social, and political conditions of a time period are affected by a recession.
9.2.12.CAP.2	Develop college and career readiness skills by participating in opportunities such as structured learning experiences, apprenticeships, and dual enrollment programs.
9.2.12.CAP.3	Investigate how continuing education contributes to one's career and personal growth.
9.2.12.CAP.13	Analyze how the economic, social, and political conditions of a time period can affect the labor market.
9.4.12.IML.1	Compare search browsers and recognize features that allow for filtering of information.
9.4.12.IML.2	Evaluate digital sources for timeliness, accuracy, perspective, credibility of the source, and relevance of information, in media, data, or other resources (e.g., NJSLA.W8, Social Studies Practice: Gathering and Evaluating Sources).
9.4.12.IML.7	Develop an argument to support a claim regarding a current workplace or societal/ethical issue such as climate change (e.g., NJSLA.W1, 7.1.AL.PRSNT.4).
9.4.12.IML.8	Evaluate media sources for point of view, bias, and motivations (e.g., NJSLA.R6, 7.1.AL.IPRET.6).
9.4.12.IML.9	Analyze the decisions creators make to reveal explicit and implicit messages within information and media (e.g., 1.5.12acc.C2a, 7.1.IL.IPRET.4).

Interdisciplinary Connections

How does this unit connect to standards in other disciplines? Add the appropriate NJ SLS here, keeping grade bands in mind. This is done by clicking "actions" and then "add standards".

3	Construct viable arguments and critique the reasoning of others
6.1.12.CivicsPD.1.a	Use multiple sources to analyze the factors that led to an increase in the political rights and participation in government.
6	Attend to precision
7	Look for and make use of structure
A.SSE.B.3	Choose and produce an equivalent form of an expression to reveal and explain properties of the quantity represented by the expression.
A.SSE.B.4	Derive and/or explain the formula for the sum of a finite geometric series (when the common ratio is not 1), and use the formula to solve problems.
6.1.12.CivicsDP.4.a	Compare and contrast historians' interpretations of the impact of the 13th, 14th, and 15th Amendments on African American's ability to participate in influencing governmental policies.
6.1.12.CivicsDP.4.b	Analyze how ideas found in key documents contributed to demanding equality for all (i.e., the Declaration of Independence, the Seneca Falls Declaration of Sentiments and Resolutions, the Emancipation Proclamation, and the Gettysburg Address).
6.1.12.HistoryCC.8.c	Identify the conditions that gave rise to the Harlem Renaissance and assess the impact of artists, writers, and musicians on American culture.
6.1.12.CivicsDP.13.a	Analyze the effectiveness of national legislation, policies, and Supreme Court decisions in promoting civil liberties and equal opportunities (i.e., the Civil Rights Act, the Voting Rights Act, the Equal Rights Amendment, Title VII, Title IX, Affirmative Action, Brown v. Board of Education, and Roe v. Wade).
6.1.12.EconEM.13.a	Explain how individuals and organizations used economic measures as weapons in the struggle for civil and human rights (e.g., the Montgomery Bus Boycott, sit downs).
6.1.12.HistoryCC.13.c	Determine the impetus for the Civil Rights Movement and generate an evidence-based argument that evaluates the federal actions taken to ensure civil rights for African Americans.
HS-LS3	Heredity: Inheritance and Variation of Traits
HS-LS3-3	Apply concepts of statistics and probability to explain the variation and distribution of expressed traits in a population.
HS-LS4	Biological Evolution: Unity and Diversity
HS-LS4-1	Communicate scientific information that common ancestry and biological evolution are supported by multiple lines of empirical evidence.
HS-LS4-3	Apply concepts of statistics and probability to support explanations that organisms with an advantageous heritable trait tend to increase in proportion to organisms lacking this trait.
HS-LS4-4	Construct an explanation based on evidence for how natural selection leads to adaptation of populations.
HS-ESS3	Earth and Human Activity
HS-ESS3-1	Construct an explanation based on evidence for how the availability of natural resources, occurrence of natural hazards, and climate change have influenced human activity.
HS-ESS3-4	Evaluate or refine a technological solution that reduces impacts of human activities on climate change and other natural systems.
