Targeted ELA Standards

Add the appropriate NJSLS ELA standards with which this unit aligns. This is done by clicking "actions" and then "add standards".

ELA.L.SS.11–12.1	Demonstrate command of the system and structure of the English language when writing or speaking.
ELA.L.KL.11–12.2	Apply knowledge of language to understand how language functions in different contexts, to make effective choices for meaning or style, and to comprehend more fully when reading or listening.
ELA.L.VL.11–12.3	Determine or clarify the meaning of unknown and multiple-meaning words and phrases based on grades 11–12 reading and content, including technical meanings, choosing flexibly from a range of strategies.
ELA.L.VI.11–12.4	Demonstrate understanding of figurative language, word relationships, and nuances in word meanings, including connotative meanings.
ELA.RL.CR.11–12.1	Accurately cite strong and thorough textual evidence and make relevant connections to strongly support a comprehensive analysis of multiple aspects of what a literary text says explicitly and inferentially, as well as interpretations of the text; this may include determining where the text leaves matters uncertain.
ELA.RI.CR.11–12.1	Accurately cite a range of thorough textual evidence and make relevant connections to strongly support a comprehensive analysis of multiple aspects of what an informational text says explicitly and inferentially, as well as interpretations of the text.

ELA.RL.CI.11–12.2	Determine two or more themes of a literary text and analyze how they are developed and refined over the course of the text, including how they interact and build on one another to produce a complex account or analysis; provide an objective summary of the text.
ELA.RI.CI.11–12.2	Determine two or more central ideas of an informational text and analyze how they are developed and refined over the course of a text, including how they interact and build on one another to provide a complex account or analysis; provide an objective summary of the text.
ELA.RL.IT.11–12.3	Analyze the impact of the author’s choices as they develop ideas throughout the text regarding how to develop and relate elements of a story or drama (e.g., where a story is set, how the action is ordered, how the characters are introduced and developed).
ELA.RI.IT.11–12.3	Analyze the impact of an author’s choices as they develop ideas throughout the text regarding a complex set of ideas or sequence of events, and explain how specific individuals, ideas, or events interact and develop.
ELA.RL.TS.11–12.4	Evaluate the author’s choices concerning the structure and the effectiveness of specific parts of a text (e.g., the choice of where to begin or end a story, the choice to provide a comedic or tragic resolution) and how they contribute to its overall structure and meaning, as well as its aesthetic impact.
ELA.RI.TS.11–12.4	Evaluate the author’s choices concerning structure and the effectiveness of the structure an author uses in his or her exposition or argument, including whether the structure makes points clear, convincing, and engaging.
ELA.RL.PP.11–12.5	Evaluate perspectives/lenses from two or more texts on related topics and justify the more cogent viewpoint (e.g., different accounts of the same event or issue, use of different media or formats).
ELA.RL.MF.11–12.6	Synthesize complex information across multiple sources and formats to develop ideas, resolve conflicting information, or develop an interpretation that goes beyond explicit text information (e.g., express a personal point of view, new interpretation of the author’s message).
ELA.W.AW.11–12.1	Write arguments to support claims in an analysis of substantive topics or texts, using valid reasoning and relevant and sufficient evidence.
ELA.W.WP.11–12.4	Develop and strengthen writing as needed by planning, revising, editing, rewriting, trying a new approach; sustaining effort to complete complex writing tasks; tracking and reflecting on personal writing progress (e.g., using portfolios, journals, conferencing); or consulting a style manual (such as MLA or APA Style), focusing on addressing what is most significant for a specific purpose and audience.
ELA.W.RW.11–12.7	Write routinely over extended time frames (time for research, reflection, and revision) and shorter time frames (a single sitting or a day or two) for a range of tasks, purposes.
ELA.SL.PE.11–12.1	Initiate and participate effectively in a range of collaborative discussions (one-on-one, in groups, and teacher-led) with peers on grades 11–12 topics, texts, and issues, building on others’ ideas and expressing their own clearly and persuasively.
ELA.SL.II.11–12.2	Integrate multiple sources of information presented in diverse formats and media (e.g., visually, quantitatively, orally) in order to make informed decisions and solve problems, evaluating the credibility and accuracy of each source and noting any discrepancies among the data.
ELA.SL.ES.11–12.3	Evaluate a speaker’s point of view, reasoning, and use of evidence and rhetoric, assessing the stance, premises, links among ideas, word choice, points of emphasis, and tone used.
ELA.SL.AS.11–12.6	Adapt speech to a variety of contexts and tasks, demonstrating a command of formal English when indicated or appropriate.

Rationale

This unit on "The Rime of the Ancient Mariner" and the theme of duality is designed to equip students with critical thinking and analytical skills essential for navigating complex real-world issues. By examining how contrasting perspectives, moral dilemmas, and supernatural elements are portrayed in literature, students develop the ability to approach multifaceted problems with a nuanced perspective. The unit encourages them to reflect on personal experiences and societal challenges, fostering an understanding of how different viewpoints influence ethical decisions and personal growth. This preparatory approach not only enhances their literary analysis skills but also empowers them to engage thoughtfully with diverse perspectives and complex situations in their future academic and personal lives.

Students will demonstrate mastery of the standards and skills through a comprehensive benchmark and summative assessment focused on argumentative writing. The benchmark will assess their ability to formulate and support a clear, persuasive thesis, integrate relevant textual evidence, and address counterarguments effectively. The summative assessment will require students to write a well-structured argumentative essay that reflects their understanding of complex issues, uses persuasive language, and applies critical thinking. By showcasing their proficiency in crafting coherent arguments and engaging with multiple perspectives, students will illustrate their ability to apply argumentative writing skills to both academic and real-world contexts.

Enduring Understandings

Content Specific	Skills Specific
<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Concept of Dual Perspectives: Understanding that literary texts often present multiple perspectives, which can represent different worldviews, values, and approaches to problem-solving. In The Rime of the Ancient Mariner, contrasting perspectives such as superstition versus scientific rationality are central to the narrative and its thematic exploration. 2. Impact of Worldviews: Recognizing how characters' divergent perspectives drive plot development and influence thematic elements. The Mariner's journey reflects a transformation from a narrow, self-centered view to a broader, more interconnected understanding of life, highlighting the influence of worldviews on personal growth and moral reckoning. 3. Philosophical and Ethical Considerations: Analyzing how different ways of thinking are not merely narrative devices but also vehicles for exploring deeper philosophical and ethical questions. For example, The Rime of the Ancient Mariner invites readers to consider the moral implications of actions, the role of nature in human affairs, and the search for redemption. 4. Cultural and Historical Contexts: Examining how historical and cultural contexts shape the representation of dual perspectives in literature. Understanding how Coleridge's work reflects the tensions 	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Argumentative Writing: Developing arguments that analyze how contrasting viewpoints are represented in literature, using The Rime of the Ancient Mariner as a primary example. Crafting well-reasoned arguments that support claims with textual evidence and addressing counterarguments. 2. Analytical Reading: Accurately citing textual evidence to support comprehensive analyses of how dual perspectives are developed and refined over the course of the text. Examining how Coleridge's choices in narrative structure and character development reflect different ways of thinking. 3. Textual Synthesis: Integrating and synthesizing information from various parts of the text to create a nuanced understanding of how different perspectives influence the overall meaning. Exploring how the Mariner's journey illustrates the interplay between reason and imagination. 4. Critical Evaluation: Assessing the effectiveness of the author's choices regarding the presentation of contrasting viewpoints and their impact on the text's structure and meaning. Understanding how these choices contribute to the aesthetic and thematic depth of the work. 5. Collaborative Discussions: Engaging in discussions with peers to explore and debate the implications of dual perspectives in The
