Status: Published

Unit Overview

Theme: Heroes and Journeys

Benchmark Text Focus: Informational

Anchor Text: Poetry & Informational Texts:
Beowulf, Chaucer, and the Medieval Influence

Writing Genre Focus: Argumentative & Conventions

Targeted ELA Standards

Add the appropriate NJSLS ELA standards with which this unit aligns. This is done by clicking "actions" and then "add standards".

L.SS.11–12.1	Demonstrate command of the system and structure of the English language when writing or speaking.
L.KL.11–12.2	Apply knowledge of language to understand how language functions in different contexts, to make effective choices for meaning or style, and to comprehend more fully when reading or listening.
L.VL.11–12.3	Determine or clarify the meaning of unknown and multiple-meaning words and phrases based on grades 11–12 reading and content, including technical meanings, choosing flexibly from a range of strategies.
L.VI.11–12.4	Demonstrate understanding of figurative language, word relationships, and nuances in word meanings, including connotative meanings.
RL.CR.11–12.1	Accurately cite strong and thorough textual evidence and make relevant connections to strongly support a comprehensive analysis of multiple aspects of what a literary text says explicitly and inferentially, as well as interpretations of the text; this may include determining where the text leaves matters uncertain.
RI.CR.11–12.1	Accurately cite a range of thorough textual evidence and make relevant connections to strongly support a comprehensive analysis of multiple aspects of what an informational text says explicitly and inferentially, as well as interpretations of the text.
RI.CI.11–12.2	Determine two or more central ideas of an informational text and analyze how they are developed and refined over the course of a text, including how they interact and build on one another to provide a complex account or analysis; provide an objective summary of the text.

RL.IT.11–12.3	Analyze the impact of the author’s choices as they develop ideas throughout the text regarding how to develop and relate elements of a story or drama (e.g., where a story is set, how the action is ordered, how the characters are introduced and developed).
RI.IT.11–12.3	Analyze the impact of an author's choices as they develop ideas throughout the text regarding a complex set of ideas or sequence of events, and explain how specific individuals, ideas, or events interact and develop.
RL.TS.11–12.4	Evaluate the author’s choices concerning the structure and the effectiveness of specific parts of a text (e.g., the choice of where to begin or end a story, the choice to provide a comedic or tragic resolution) and how they contribute to its overall structure and meaning, as well as its aesthetic impact.
RI.TS.11–12.4	Evaluate the author’s choices concerning structure and the effectiveness of the structure an author uses in his or her exposition or argument, including whether the structure makes points clear, convincing, and engaging.
RL.PP.11–12.5	Evaluate perspectives/lenses from two or more texts on related topics and justify the more cogent viewpoint (e.g., different accounts of the same event or issue, use of different media or formats).
RI.PP.11–12.5	Analyze an author’s purpose in a text distinguishing what is directly stated in a text or through rhetoric, analyzing how style and content convey information and advance a point of view.
W.AW.11–12.1	Write arguments to support claims in an analysis of substantive topics or texts, using valid reasoning and relevant and sufficient evidence.
W.WR.11–12.5	Conduct short as well as more sustained research projects to answer a question (including a self-generated question) or solve a problem; narrow or broaden the inquiry when appropriate; synthesize multiple sources on the subject, demonstrating understanding of the subject under investigation.
W.SE.11–12.6	Gather relevant information from multiple authoritative print and digital sources, using advanced searches effectively; assess the strengths and limitations of each source in terms of the task, purpose, and audience; integrate information into the text selectively to maintain the flow of ideas, avoiding plagiarism and overreliance on any one source and following a standard format for citation (MLA or APA Style Manuals).
W.RW.11–12.7	Write routinely over extended time frames (time for research, reflection, and revision) and shorter time frames (a single sitting or a day or two) for a range of tasks, purposes.
SL.PE.11–12.1	Initiate and participate effectively in a range of collaborative discussions (one-on-one, in groups, and teacher-led) with peers on grades 11–12 topics, texts, and issues, building on others’ ideas and expressing their own clearly and persuasively.
SL.PI.11–12.4	Present information, findings and supporting evidence clearly, concisely, and logically. The content, organization, development, and style are appropriate to task, purpose, and audience.
SL.AS.11–12.6	Adapt speech to a variety of contexts and tasks, demonstrating a command of formal English when indicated or appropriate.

Rationale

This unit introduces students to the foundations of British literature through the study of poetry and informational texts, with Beowulf as the anchor text. Students analyze the conventions of Anglo-Saxon epic poetry—including alliteration, kennings, caesura, oral tradition, and the heroic code—to examine how poets communicate cultural values and develop themes of heroism, leadership, courage, and legacy. Medieval ballads and contemporary parodies extend students' understanding of how poetic forms and themes evolve over time.

Historical and informational texts provide the context necessary to understand the world of Beowulf and medieval England. Students compare literary and informational texts to evaluate how ideas about heroism and society are shaped by historical and cultural influences. The unit concludes with an introduction to Chaucer's General Prologue, preparing students for a more in-depth study of The Canterbury Tales in the next marking period.

Throughout the unit, students strengthen their close reading, poetry analysis, and argument writing skills. They analyze how authors develop ideas, compare texts across genres, and construct evidence-based claims supported by relevant textual evidence. Mastery of these skills is demonstrated through a benchmark assessment focused on literary and informational text analysis and a summative argument writing assessment that synthesizes evidence from multiple texts studied throughout the unit.

Enduring Understandings

Content Specific	Skills Specific
1. The Relationship Between Form, Language, and Meaning: Students will understand that poetic structures, including alliterative verse, kennings, caesura, rhyme, meter, and narrative structure, shape meaning and reflect the values, beliefs, and traditions of the cultures that produce them. Students will recognize how authors use language and structure to develop themes and communicate ideas about heroism, leadership, identity, and legacy. 2. The Evolution of British Literary Traditions: Students will understand that British literature develops through a continuous conversation among writers, with later works adapting and transforming earlier traditions. Through the study of Beowulf and The Canterbury Tales, students will recognize how literary forms evolve from the oral traditions and heroic	1. Evidence-Based Analysis and Argument: Students will demonstrate the ability to analyze literary and informational texts, develop clear claims, and support arguments with relevant textual evidence and logical reasoning. Students will evaluate how authors develop ideas about heroism, leadership, identity, and social values across texts. 2. Critical Reading of Poetry and Informational Texts: Students will demonstrate the ability to closely analyze poetry and informational texts by identifying central ideas, examining authorial choices, evaluating evidence, and explaining how historical and cultural contexts influence meaning. 3. Argument Development and Organization: Students will construct well-organized arguments that introduce a defensible claim, acknowledge multiple perspectives, use evidence effectively, and explain the epics of the Anglo-Saxon period to the characterization, frame narrative, rhyming couplets, and social commentary of Middle English literature.

3. Heroism, Leadership, and Cultural Values:
Students will understand that representations of heroes and leaders reflect the ideals, conflicts, and social expectations of a particular time and culture. By examining heroic figures and journeys in texts such as Beowulf and The Canterbury Tales, students will explore how authors define courage, loyalty, responsibility, morality, and legacy.
4. The Influence of Historical and Cultural Context:
Students will understand that literature is shaped by the historical, linguistic, and social conditions in which it is created. Informational texts provide essential context for interpreting literary works and understanding how texts reflect the beliefs, conflicts, and structures of medieval society.
5. The Power of Literary Traditions and Human Experiences:
Students will understand that works such as Beowulf and The Canterbury Tales endure because they explore universal questions about identity, morality, social responsibility, conflict, and the human experience. Students will examine how medieval writers use poetry and storytelling to explore both individual choices and broader societal issues.
6. Language as a Reflection of Culture:
Students will understand that the development of the English language and changing literary forms reveal shifts in culture, identity, and communication throughout history. Students will examine how the transition from Old English significance of their reasoning. Students will apply these skills to evaluate literary interpretations and questions about values, characters, and cultural ideals.

4. Synthesis Across Texts and Genres:
Students will demonstrate the ability to synthesize ideas across poetry, literature, and informational texts by making connections between authors, time periods, themes, and perspectives while supporting conclusions with evidence.
5. Effective Communication and Collaborative Discussion:
Students will engage in academic discussions by presenting interpretations, defending claims with evidence, evaluating different perspectives, and building upon the ideas of others using appropriate academic language.
6. Revision and Refinement of Argument Writing:
Students will strengthen their writing through revision, editing, and reflection, improving the clarity, organization, evidence, and effectiveness of their arguments for specific audiences and purposes.

Content Specific	Skills Specific
• How do the poetic elements of Beowulf, including alliteration, kennings, caesura, and the heroic code, shape meaning and reveal the values of Anglo-Saxon society? • How does Beowulf reflect the beliefs, conflicts, and cultural expectations of the time period in which it was created? • How do authors use literary techniques such as characterization, imagery, structure, and language to develop ideas about heroism, leadership, courage, and legacy? • How do Beowulf and The Canterbury Tales demonstrate the evolution of British literature and changing perspectives on individuals, society, and human behavior? • How do historical and informational texts enhance our understanding of the cultural, linguistic, and social contexts that influence literary works?	• How can close reading and analysis of poetry help you identify how authors use form, language, and structure to communicate meaning? • How can you evaluate an author's choices and use textual evidence to develop a strong interpretation of a literary or informational text? • How can you develop a clear and effective argument about a text by making a claim, selecting relevant evidence, and explaining your reasoning? • How can you compare multiple texts and perspectives to analyze how different authors explore themes such as heroism, leadership, morality, and social responsibility? • How can you revise and strengthen an argument to improve its clarity, organization, evidence, and effectiveness for a specific audience and purpose?

English 11 Honors/Pre-AP Literature Addendum

Advanced Literary Analysis

- Extend analysis of Beowulf through additional teacher-selected passages.
- Extend analysis of The General Prologue through additional teacher-selected passages.
- Study AP Literature-specific poetic and literary devices within these texts.

Chaucer: Characterization, Irony, and Satire

- Analyze Chaucer's use of characterization.
- Examine the role of irony in The General Prologue.
- Evaluate how satire critiques social institutions.
- Explain how these techniques reveal conflicts within medieval society.

Historical and Thematic Analysis

- Examine how historical context influences medieval literature.
- Analyze how literary form shapes meaning.
- Evaluate how authorial purpose develops central ideas.
- Explore representations of:
 - Honor
 - Identity
 - Leadership

- Individual responsibility

Comparative Analysis and Critical Thinking

- Synthesize ideas across epic poetry in other settings, such as:
 - The Death of Hector / Achilles and Priam from The Iliad
 - In the One-Eyed Giant's Cave / The Cattle of the Sun from The Odyssey
 - Or other as appropriate to Pre-AP Literature studies
- Participate in analytical writing assignments.
- Engage in class discussions exploring:
 - Morality
 - Justice
 - Power
 - The role of literature in reflecting and challenging society

Pre-AP Literature Enrichment

- Complete timed analytical writing assignments.
- Develop AP-level literary and academic vocabulary.
- Participate in roundtable discussions of literary works.
- Compare the expectations and formats of the NJGPA and AP Literature Exam.
- Complete additional Pre-AP Literature activities as appropriate.

connections.

3. Analyzing Themes in Literary Texts (ELA.RL.CI.11–12.2):

- Determining and analyzing two or more themes.
- Understanding how themes interact and build on one another.
- Providing objective summaries of literary texts.

4. Analyzing Central Ideas in Informational Texts (ELA.RI.CI.11–12.2):

- Determining and analyzing two or more central ideas.
- Understanding how central ideas interact and build on one another.
- Providing objective summaries of informational texts.

5. Analyzing Author's Choices in Literature (ELA.RL.IT.11–12.3):

- Examining how authors develop ideas through narrative elements (setting, action order, character development).

6. Analyzing Author's Choices in Informational Texts (ELA.RI.IT.11–12.3):

- Analyzing the development of ideas and sequences in informational texts.
- Explaining how individuals, ideas, or events interact and develop.

7. Evaluating Author's Structural Choices (ELA.RL.TS.11–12.4):

- Evaluating how structure and specific parts of a text contribute to its overall meaning and aesthetic impact.

8. Comparing Perspectives in Texts (ELA.RL.PP.11–12.5):

- Evaluating different perspectives or lenses from two or more texts on related topics.
- Justifying the more cogent viewpoint.

9. Determining Word Meanings

Writing:

• Narrative Techniques:

Developing well-structured narratives that incorporate advanced techniques like complex character development, detailed settings, and sophisticated plot structures. Using narrative techniques such as dialogue, pacing, description, and reflection to enhance storytelling.

• Revising and Strengthening:

Engaging in comprehensive revision processes, including planning, editing, rewriting, and reflecting on writing progress. Consulting style manuals (MLA or APA) for proper formatting and stylistic choices.

Speaking:

• Collaborative Discussions:

Initiating and participating effectively in in-depth discussions on complex topics, building on others' ideas, and expressing personal insights clearly and persuasively.

• Adaptation and Formal Speech:

Adapting speech to various contexts and demonstrating a command of formal English in appropriate situations.

(ELA.L.VL.11–12.3):

- Clarifying the meaning of unknown and multiple-meaning words and phrases.
- Using context clues, word parts, and reference materials to determine meanings.

10. Understanding Figurative Language
(ELA.L.VI.11–12.4):

- Analyzing figurative language, word relationships, and nuances in word meanings.
- Understanding and interpreting connotative meanings.

Writing Skills:

1. Writing Narratives (ELA.W.NW.11–12.3):

- Developing real or imagined experiences using effective technique and well-structured event sequences.
- Employing narrative techniques such as dialogue, pacing, description, and reflection.

2. Developing and Strengthening Writing
(ELA.W.WP.11–12.4):

- Planning, revising, editing, rewriting, and trying new approaches in writing.
- Tracking and reflecting on personal writing progress using portfolios, journals, and conferencing.
- Consulting style manuals (e.g., MLA or APA) for specific purposes and audiences.

3. Writing Routinely (ELA.W.RW.11–12.7):

- Writing over extended and shorter time frames for various tasks and purposes.
- Incorporating research, reflection, and revision into writing processes.

4. Command of the English Language
(ELA.L.SS.11–12.1):

- Mastery of grammar, syntax, and sentence structure. ○ Effective use of language conventions in writing and speaking. 5. Understanding Language Functions (ELA.L.KL.11–12.2): ○ Analyzing how language functions in different contexts. ○ Making effective choices for meaning or style in writing. ○ Enhancing comprehension when reading or listening through language analysis. Speaking Skills: 1. Participating in Collaborative Discussions (ELA.SL.PE.11–12.1): ▪ Initiating and participating effectively in discussions on topics, texts, and issues. ▪ Building on others' ideas and expressing one's own clearly and persuasively. 2. Adapting Speech to Various Contexts (ELA.SL.AS.11–12.6): ▪ Adapting speech for different contexts and tasks. ▪ Demonstrating command of formal English when appropriate.

9.4.12.TL.3	Analyze the effectiveness of the process and quality of collaborative environments.
9.4.12.TL.4	Collaborate in online learning communities or social networks or virtual worlds to analyze and propose a resolution to a real-world problem (e.g., 7.1.AL.IPERS.6).

Interdisciplinary Connections

How does this unit connect to standards in other disciplines? Add the appropriate NJ SLS here, keeping grade bands in mind. This is done by clicking "actions" and then "add standards".

1	Make sense of problems and persevere in solving them
2	Reason abstractly and quantitatively
3	Construct viable arguments and critique the reasoning of others
G.SRT.A	Understand similarity in terms of similarity transformations
G.SRT.A.2	Given two figures, use the definition of similarity in terms of similarity transformations to decide if they are similar; explain using similarity transformations the meaning of similarity for triangles as the equality of all corresponding pairs of angles and the proportionality of all corresponding pairs of sides.
HS-LS1	From Molecules to Organisms: Structures and Processes
HS-LS1-2	Develop and use a model to illustrate the hierarchical organization of interacting systems that provide specific functions within multicellular organisms.
6.2.12.GeoHE.1.a	Determine the role of natural resources, climate, and topography in European exploration, colonization, and settlement patterns.
6.2.12.HistoryCC.2.c	Assess the impact of the printing press and other technologies developed on the dissemination of ideas.
6.2.12.HistoryUP.2.a	Analyze the impact of new intellectual, philosophical, and scientific ideas on how humans viewed themselves and how they viewed their physical and spiritual worlds.
HS-LS3	Heredity: Inheritance and Variation of Traits
HS-LS3-1	Ask questions to clarify relationships about the role of DNA and chromosomes in coding the instructions for characteristic traits passed from parents to offspring.
HS-LS3-3	Apply concepts of statistics and probability to explain the variation and distribution of expressed traits in a population.

HS-LS4

Biological Evolution: Unity and Diversity

HS-LS4-1

Communicate scientific information that common ancestry and biological evolution are supported by multiple lines of empirical evidence.

HS-LS4-4

Construct an explanation based on evidence for how natural selection leads to adaptation of populations.
