LA.RL.9-10	Reading Literature
LA.RL.9-10.1	Cite strong and thorough textual evidence and make relevant connections to support analysis of what the text says explicitly as well as inferentially, including determining where the text leaves matters uncertain.
LA.RL.9-10.2	Determine a theme or central idea of a text and analyze in detail its development over the course of the text, including how it emerges and is shaped and refined by specific details and provide an objective summary of the text.
LA.RL.9-10.3	Analyze how complex characters (e.g., those with multiple or conflicting motivations) develop over the course of a text, interact with other characters, and advance the plot or develop the theme.
LA.RL.9-10.4	Determine the meaning of words and phrases as they are used in the text, including figurative and connotative meanings; analyze the cumulative impact of specific word choices on meaning and tone (e.g., how the language evokes a sense of time and place; how it sets a formal or informal tone).
LA.RL.9-10.6	Analyze a particular point of view or cultural experience reflected in a work of literature from outside the United States, drawing on a wide reading of world literature.
LA.RL.9-10.7	Analyze the representation of a subject or a key scene in two different artistic mediums, including what is emphasized or absent in each work (e.g., Auden's "Musée des Beaux Arts" and Breughel's Landscape with the Fall of Icarus).
LA.RL.9-10.9	Analyze and reflect on (e.g., practical knowledge, historical/cultural context, and background knowledge) how an author draws on and transforms source material in a specific work (e.g., how Shakespeare treats a theme or topic from mythology or the Bible or how a later author draws on a play by Shakespeare).
LA.RL.9-10.10a	By the end of grade 9, read and comprehend literature, including stories, dramas, and poems at grade level text-complexity or above with scaffolding as needed.
LA.W.9-10.3.B	Use narrative techniques, such as dialogue, pacing, description, reflection, and multiple plot lines, to develop experiences, events, and/or characters.
LA.W.9-10.3.D	Use precise words and phrases, telling details, and sensory language to convey a vivid picture of the experiences, events, setting, and/or characters.
LA.W.9-10.4	Produce clear and coherent writing in which the development, organization, and style are appropriate to task, purpose, and audience. (Grade-specific expectations for writing types are defined in standards 1–3 above.)
LA.W.9-10.5	Develop and strengthen writing as needed by planning, revising, editing, rewriting, trying a new approach, or consulting a style manual (such as MLA or APA Style), focusing on addressing what is most significant for a specific purpose and audience.
LA.W.9-10.6	Use technology, including the Internet, to produce, share, and update individual or shared writing products, taking advantage of technology's capacity to link to other information and to display information flexibly and dynamically.
LA.W.9-10.7	Conduct short as well as more sustained research projects to answer a question (including a self-generated question) or solve a problem; narrow or broaden the inquiry when appropriate; synthesize multiple sources on the subject, demonstrating understanding of the subject under investigation.

- LA.W.9-10.8 Gather relevant information from multiple authoritative print and digital sources, using advanced searches effectively; assess the usefulness of each source in answering the research question; integrate information into the text selectively to maintain the flow of ideas, avoiding plagiarism and following a standard format for citation (MLA or APA Style Manuals).
- LA.W.9-10.10 Write routinely over extended time frames (time for research, reflection, and revision) and shorter time frames (a single sitting or a day or two) for a range of tasks, purposes, and audiences.
- LA.SL.9-10.1 Initiate and participate effectively in a range of collaborative discussions (one-on-one, in groups, and teacher-led) with peers on grades 9–10 topics, texts, and issues, building on others’ ideas and expressing their own clearly and persuasively.
- LA.SL.9-10.1.A Come to discussions prepared, having read and researched material under study; explicitly draw on that preparation by referring to evidence from texts and other research on the topic or issue to stimulate a thoughtful, well-reasoned exchange of ideas.
- LA.SL.9-10.1.D Respond thoughtfully to various perspectives, summarize points of agreement and disagreement, and justify own views. Make new connections in light of the evidence and reasoning presented.
- LA.SL.9-10.3 Evaluate a speaker’s point of view, reasoning, and use of evidence and rhetoric, identifying any false reasoning or distorted evidence.

- LA.SL.9-10.6 Adapt speech to a variety of contexts and tasks, demonstrating command of formal English.
- LA.L.9-10.1.B Use various types of phrases (noun, verb, adjectival, adverbial, participial, prepositional, absolute) and clauses (independent, dependent; noun, relative, adverbial) to convey specific meanings and add variety and interest to writing or presentations.
- LA.L.9-10.2 Demonstrate command of the conventions of standard English capitalization, punctuation, and spelling when writing.
- LA.L.9-10.2.C Spell correctly.

Unit Focus

The theme of this second unit is "Literature Matters" and students will be instructed on different genres of literature: from poetry to prose to drama. Poetry can be difficult for the L2 due to restricted amounts of vocabulary (and their synonyms and antonyms, definitional and connotational meanings). This unit will follow a routine format: frontload vocabulary and work in pairs and groups to learn and present vocabulary to each other. Intersperse lessons with grammar to broaden students' knowledge base. Connecting grammar pieces to their L1 to help translate the functionality into L2. Idioms and figurative language will be researched in L1, presented, and American idioms and figurative language including other means of communication that is not grammatically perfect: slang, symbols, emojis, etc... ('Sup'? = What's up?, a heart ♥ ☐ = love, body symbols ☺ = peace). Students will write poetry, research a poem from L1, and orally present, students will act out scenes from plays, and books, or write their own to present. Students will classify the three major genres (and their subgenres) of literature and find examples to create a working anchor chart. Students will write reflections on poems and use imagery and figurative language to write a description.

WIDA Standards

- 2: Language for Language Arts
5: Language for Social Studies

Establish an objective or neutral stance

Add precision, details, and clarity about complex attributes, qualities, characteristics, activities, and conceptual relationships

Develop coherence and cohesion throughout text

Introduce and define topic and/or entity for audience

Develop story, advancing the plot and themes with complications and resolutions, time and event sequences

Engage and adjust for audience

Rationale, Transfer Goals, and Enduring Understandings

Students will learn the different genres of literature and translate that understanding into their own culture (thereby bridging cultures and similarities). When poetry and figurative language are explicitly taught students will research to find the same types of academic language in their own L1. Including students' first culture and the American culture facilitates assimilation (melting-pot theory). Through a study of a variety of poetry, prose, and drama, video clips, and audio files, students will examine how literature can affect people. Students will use this analysis in order to improve their reading, writing, speaking, listening, and thinking skills by determining the main idea and author's purpose by their use of language depicting tone and mood. The teaching will continue in reading and writing for the listening and communication skills required of an L2 learner. Reading selections will extend the lessons with informational and descriptive text that students can reflect on and write about.
