Rationale

The period from 1900-1945 is one of the most transformative and tumultuous eras in world history. This unit aims to provide students with a comprehensive understanding of the significant global events, ideologies, and shifts that shaped the modern world. By exploring this era, students will gain insights into the causes and effects of major conflicts, the rise and fall of empires, and the profound social, political, and economic changes that set the stage for the contemporary world.

Enduring Understandings

Content Specific	Skills Specific
<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Nationalism, imperialism, industrialization, and militarism contributed to an increase in economic and military competition among European nations, the Ottoman Empire, and Japan, and led to World War I.• The failure of the Treaty of Versailles, the impact of the global depression, and the expansionist policies and actions of Axis nations are considered major factors that resulted in World War II.• World Wars I & II were "total wars" in which nations mobilized entire populations and economies and employed new military tactics that resulted in unprecedented death and destruction, as well as drastic changes in political boundaries.• World Wars I & II challenged economic and political power structures and gave rise to a new balance of power in the world.	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Geographic data can be used to analyze spatial patterns.• Examining multiple events and perspectives allows for a clearer understanding of the significance of individuals and groups.• Evidence from multiple relevant historical sources and interpretations can be used to develop a reasoned argument about the past.
