Content Area: ELA
Course(s):
Time Period: MP1
Length:
Status: Published

Targeted ELA Standards

ELA.L.SS.6.1.B	Use intensive pronouns (e.g., myself, ourselves).
ELA.L.KL.6.2.A	Acquire and use accurately grade-appropriate general academic and domain-specific words and phrases.
ELA.L.VL.6.3.A	Use context (e.g., the overall meaning of a sentence or paragraph; a word's position or function in a sentence) as a clue to the meaning of a word or phrase.
ELA.L.VI.6.4.C	Analyze the impact of a specific word choice on meaning and tone.
ELA.RL.CR.6.1	Cite textual evidence and make relevant connections to support analysis of what a literary text says explicitly as well as inferences drawn from the text.
ELA.RI.CR.6.1	Cite textual evidence and make relevant connections to support analysis of what an informational text says explicitly as well as inferences drawn from the text.
ELA.RL.CI.6.2	Determine the theme of a literary text (e.g., stories, plays or poetry) and explain how it is supported by key details; provide a summary of the text distinct from personal opinions or judgments.
ELA.RI.CI.6.2	Determine the central idea of an informational text and explain how it is supported by key details; provide a summary of the text distinct from personal opinions or judgments.
ELA.RL.IT.6.3	Describe how a particular text's structure unfolds in a series of episodes and use textual evidence to describe how the characters respond or change as the plot moves toward a resolution.
ELA.RI.IT.6.3	Analyze how a particular text's (e.g., article, brochure, technical manual, procedural text) structure unfolds by using textual evidence to describe how a key individual, event, or idea is introduced, illustrated, and elaborated in a text.
ELA.RL.TS.6.4	Analyze how a particular piece (e.g., sentence, chapter, scene, stanza, or section) fits into the overall structure of a text and contributes to the development of the ideas, theme, setting, or plot.
ELA.RL.PP.6.5	Determine how an author conveys or develops perspective in a text (through the narrator or speaker when appropriate).
ELA.RL.CT.6.8	Compare and contrast literary texts in different forms, by different authors, or from different genres (e.g., stories and poems; historical novels and primary source documents, scientific journals and fantasy stories) in terms of their approaches to similar themes and topics.
ELA.W.NW.6.3.B	Use narrative techniques, such as dialogue, pacing, and description, to develop experiences, events, and/or characters.
ELA.W.WP.6.4	With some guidance and support from peers and adults, develop and strengthen writing as needed by planning; flexibly making editing and revision choices; sustaining effort to fit composition needs and purposes; and attempting to address purpose and audience.
ELA.W.RW.6.7	Write routinely over extended time frames (time for research, reflection, metacognition/self-correction, and revision) and shorter time frames (a single sitting or a day or two) for a range of discipline-specific tasks, purposes, and audiences.
ELA.SL.PE.6.1.C	Pose and respond to specific questions with elaboration and detail by making comments that contribute to the topic, text, or issue under discussion.

ELA.SL.AS.6.6

Adapt speech to a variety of contexts and tasks, demonstrating command of formal English when indicated or appropriate.

TECH.K-12.P.1

Act as a responsible and contributing community members and employee.

Rationale

The theme of this unit centers on Community. The recommended texts for this unit include excerpts from interactive read-alouds from Fountas & Pinnell Classroom. Through both fiction and nonfiction examples exploring the theme of community, students will investigate common topics that shape and build communities. By the conclusion of this unit, students will recognize how a community can shape an individual and vice versa. They will draw connections and parallels among the various texts studied throughout the unit.

Mastery will be evaluated through a benchmark test assessing students' ability to compare and contrast the structures of fiction and non-fiction texts and analyze multiple perspectives on the same event, considering differing author viewpoints. The unit will further assess students' proficiency in narrative writing, emphasizing their ability to explore topics thoroughly and convey ideas clearly and effectively. Additionally, students will engage in discussions and collaborative activities to demonstrate their understanding of the role of community in shaping individual identities and experiences. These activities will help students develop critical thinking, reading, writing, and communication skills, essential for their academic growth and personal development.

Enduring Understandings

Overarching Understanding

Community shapes individual identities and experiences, fostering a sense of belonging and mutual support.

Content Specific	Skills Specific
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • A community can have both a positive and a negative effect on an individual. • Communities can be formed through shared experiences, goals, and values. • The strength of a community often depends on the contributions and cooperation of its members. • Governments have the responsibility to positively shape the lives of people in a community. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Readers use details from a text to understand important themes and their role in the characters' lives. • When responding to a text, use both evidence from the text and your own understanding. • Effective writers structure their narratives to highlight important themes.

Spiraling for Mastery

Content or Skill for this Unit	Spiral Focus from Previous Unit
Identify main ideas and details in a text. Understand and interpret figurative language. Make inferences based on textual evidence. Summarize texts accurately. Write clear and coherent sentences and paragraphs.	Use details from a text to understand important themes and their role in the characters' lives . Analyze how specific word choices shape meaning or tone. Support responses to a text with both evidence from the text and personal understanding. Compare and contrast themes in different texts. Structure narratives to highlight important themes.

Career Readiness, Life Literacies, and Key Skills
