L.SS.11–12.1	Demonstrate command of the system and structure of the English language when writing or speaking.
L.SS.11–12.1.A	Apply the understanding that usage is a matter of convention, can change over time, and place, and is sometimes contested.
L.SS.11–12.1.B	Observe hyphenation conventions.
L.SS.11–12.1.C	Recognize spelling conventions.
L.KL.11–12.2	Apply knowledge of language to understand how language functions in different contexts, to make effective choices for meaning or style, and to comprehend more fully when reading or listening.
L.KL.11–12.2.A	Acquire and use accurately general academic and domain-specific words and phrases, sufficient for reading, writing, speaking, and listening at the college and career readiness level.
L.KL.11–12.2.B	Vary syntax for effect, apply an understanding of syntax to the study of complex texts.
L.KL.11–12.2.C	Demonstrate independence in gathering vocabulary knowledge when considering a word or phrase important to comprehension or expression.

L.VL.11–12.3	Determine or clarify the meaning of unknown and multiple-meaning words and phrases based on grades 11–12 reading and content, including technical meanings, choosing flexibly from a range of strategies.
L.VL.11–12.3.A	Use context (e.g., the overall meaning of a sentence, paragraph, or text; a word's position or function in a sentence) as a clue to the meaning of a word or phrase.
L.VL.11–12.3.B	Identify and correctly use patterns of word changes that indicate different meanings or parts of speech (e.g., conceive, conception, conceivable).
L.VL.11–12.3.C	Analyze how an author or speaker uses and refines the meaning of a key term or terms over the course of a text or discussion.
L.VI.11–12.4	Demonstrate understanding of figurative language, word relationships, and nuances in word meanings, including connotative meanings.
L.VI.11–12.4.A	Interpret figures of speech (e.g., hyperbole, paradox) in context and analyze their role in the text.
L.VI.11–12.4.B	Analyze nuances in the meaning of words with similar denotations.
L.VI.11–12.4.C	Analyze how the meaning of a key term or terms develops or is refined over the course of a text.
L.VI.11–12.4.D	Analyze the impact of specific word choices on meaning and tone, including language that is particularly fresh, engaging, or beautiful.
RL.CR.11–12.1	Accurately cite strong and thorough textual evidence and make relevant connections to strongly support a comprehensive analysis of multiple aspects of what a literary text says explicitly and inferentially, as well as interpretations of the text; this may include determining where the text leaves matters uncertain.
RI.CR.11–12.1	Accurately cite a range of thorough textual evidence and make relevant connections to strongly support a comprehensive analysis of multiple aspects of what an informational text says explicitly and inferentially, as well as interpretations of the text.
RL.CI.11–12.2	Determine two or more themes of a literary text and analyze how they are developed and refined over the course of the text, including how they interact and build on one another to produce a complex account or analysis; provide an objective summary of the text.
RI.CI.11–12.2	Determine two or more central ideas of an informational text and analyze how they are developed and refined over the course of a text, including how they interact and build on one another to provide a complex account or analysis; provide an objective summary of the text.
RL.IT.11–12.3	Analyze the impact of the author's choices as they develop ideas throughout the text regarding how to develop and relate elements of a story or drama (e.g., where a story is set, how the action is ordered, how the characters are introduced and developed).
RI.IT.11–12.3	Analyze the impact of an author's choices as they develop ideas throughout the text regarding a complex set of ideas or sequence of events, and explain how specific individuals, ideas, or events interact and develop.
RL.TS.11–12.4	Evaluate the author's choices concerning the structure and the effectiveness of specific parts of a text (e.g., the choice of where to begin or end a story, the choice to provide a comedic or tragic resolution) and how they contribute to its overall structure and meaning, as well as its aesthetic impact.
RI.TS.11–12.4	Evaluate the author's choices concerning structure and the effectiveness of the structure an author uses in his or her exposition or argument, including whether the structure makes points clear, convincing, and engaging.
RL.PP.11–12.5	Evaluate perspectives/lenses from two or more texts on related topics and justify the more cogent viewpoint (e.g., different accounts of the same event or issue, use of different media or formats).
RL.MF.11–12.6	Synthesize complex information across multiple sources and formats to develop ideas, resolve conflicting information, or develop an interpretation that goes beyond explicit text information (e.g., express a personal point of view, new interpretation of the author's message).

W.AW.11–12.1	Write arguments to support claims in an analysis of substantive topics or texts, using valid reasoning and relevant and sufficient evidence.
W.AW.11–12.1.A	Introduce precise, knowledgeable claim(s), establish the significance of the claim(s), distinguish the claim(s) from alternate or opposing claims, and create an organization that logically sequences claim(s), counterclaims, reasons, and evidence.
W.AW.11–12.1.B	Develop claim(s) and counterclaims avoiding common logical fallacies and using sound reasoning and thoroughly, supplying the most relevant evidence for each while pointing out the strengths and limitations of both in a manner that anticipates the audience's knowledge level, concerns, values, and possible biases.
W.AW.11–12.1.C	Use transitions (e.g., words, phrases, clauses) to link the major sections of the text, create cohesion, and clarify the relationships between claim(s) and reasons, between reasons and evidence, and between claim(s) and counterclaims.
W.AW.11–12.1.D	Establish and maintain a style and tone appropriate to the audience and purpose (e.g., formal and objective for academic writing) while attending to the norms and conventions of the discipline in which they are writing.
W.AW.11–12.1.E	Provide a concluding paragraph or section that supports the argument presented (e.g., articulating implications or the significance of the topic).
W.WP.11–12.4	Develop and strengthen writing as needed by planning, revising, editing, rewriting, trying a new approach; sustaining effort to complete complex writing tasks; tracking and reflecting on personal writing progress (e.g., using portfolios, journals, conferencing); or consulting a style manual (such as MLA or APA Style), focusing on addressing what is most significant for a specific purpose and audience.
W.RW.11–12.7	Write routinely over extended time frames (time for research, reflection, and revision) and shorter time frames (a single sitting or a day or two) for a range of tasks, purposes.
SL.PE.11–12.1	Initiate and participate effectively in a range of collaborative discussions (one-on-one, in groups, and teacher-led) with peers on grades 11–12 topics, texts, and issues, building on others' ideas and expressing their own clearly and persuasively.
SL.PE.11–12.1.A	Come to discussions prepared, having read and researched material under study; explicitly draw on that preparation by referring to evidence from texts and other research on the topic or issue to stimulate a thoughtful, well-reasoned exchange of ideas.
SL.PE.11–12.1.B	Collaborate with peers to promote civil, democratic discussions and decision-making, set clear goals and assessments (e.g., student developed rubrics), and establish individual roles as needed.
SL.PE.11–12.1.C	Propel conversations by posing and responding to questions that probe reasoning and evidence; ensure a hearing for a full range of positions on a topic or issue; clarify, verify, or challenge ideas and conclusions; and promote divergent and creative perspectives.
SL.PE.11–12.1.D	Respond thoughtfully to diverse perspectives; synthesize comments, claims, and evidence made on all sides of an issue; resolve contradictions when possible; and determine what additional information or research is required to deepen the investigation or complete the task.
SL.II.11–12.2	Integrate multiple sources of information presented in diverse formats and media (e.g., visually, quantitatively, orally) in order to make informed decisions and solve problems, evaluating the credibility and accuracy of each source and noting any discrepancies among the data.
SL.ES.11–12.3	Evaluate a speaker's point of view, reasoning, and use of evidence and rhetoric, assessing the stance, premises, links among ideas, word choice, points of emphasis, and tone used.
SL.AS.11–12.6	Adapt speech to a variety of contexts and tasks, demonstrating a command of formal

Rationale

This unit on "The Rime of the Ancient Mariner" and the theme of duality is designed to equip students with critical thinking and analytical skills essential for navigating complex real-world issues. By examining how contrasting perspectives, moral dilemmas, and supernatural elements are portrayed in literature, students develop the ability to approach multifaceted problems with a nuanced perspective. The unit encourages them to reflect on personal experiences and societal challenges, fostering an understanding of how different viewpoints influence ethical decisions and personal growth. This preparatory approach not only enhances their literary analysis skills but also empowers them to engage thoughtfully with diverse perspectives and complex situations in their future academic and personal lives.

Students will demonstrate mastery of the standards and skills through a comprehensive benchmark and summative assessment focused on argumentative writing. The benchmark will assess their ability to formulate and support a clear, persuasive thesis, integrate relevant textual evidence, and address counterarguments effectively. The summative assessment will require students to write a well-structured argumentative essay that reflects their understanding of complex issues, uses persuasive language, and applies critical thinking. By showcasing their proficiency in crafting coherent arguments and engaging with multiple perspectives, students will illustrate their ability to apply argumentative writing skills to both academic and real-world contexts.

Enduring Understandings

Content Specific	Skills Specific
1. Concept of Dual Perspectives: Understanding that literary texts often present multiple perspectives, which can represent different worldviews, values, and approaches to problem-solving. In The Rime of the Ancient Mariner, contrasting perspectives such as superstition versus scientific rationality are central to the narrative and its thematic exploration. 2. Impact of Worldviews: Recognizing how characters' divergent perspectives drive plot development and influence thematic elements. The Mariner's journey reflects a transformation from a narrow, self-centered view to a broader, more interconnected understanding of life, highlighting the influence of worldviews on personal growth and moral reckoning. 3. Philosophical and Ethical Considerations: Analyzing how different ways of thinking are not merely narrative devices but also vehicles for exploring deeper philosophical and ethical questions. For example, The Rime of the Ancient Mariner invites readers to consider the moral implications of actions, the role of nature in human affairs, and the search for redemption. 4. Cultural and Historical Contexts:	1. Argumentative Writing: Developing arguments that analyze how contrasting viewpoints are represented in literature, using The Rime of the Ancient Mariner as a primary example. Crafting well-reasoned arguments that support claims with textual evidence and addressing counterarguments. 2. Analytical Reading: Accurately citing textual evidence to support comprehensive analyses of how dual perspectives are developed and refined over the course of the text. Examining how Coleridge's choices in narrative structure and character development reflect different ways of thinking. 3. Textual Synthesis: Integrating and synthesizing information from various parts of the text to create a nuanced understanding of how different perspectives influence the overall meaning. Exploring how the Mariner's journey illustrates the interplay between reason and imagination. 4. Critical Evaluation: Assessing the effectiveness of the author's choices regarding the presentation of contrasting viewpoints and their impact on the text's structure and meaning. Understanding how these choices contribute to the aesthetic and

Examining how historical and cultural contexts shape the representation of dual perspectives in literature. Understanding how Coleridge's work reflects the tensions between Enlightenment rationality and Romantic idealism prevalent in his time. 5. Reader Engagement: Engaging with the text on a level that encourages readers to reflect on their own perspectives and consider how different ways of thinking affect their understanding of the world. The Mariner's experiences prompt readers to question their own beliefs and attitudes towards nature and morality.	thematic depth of the work. 5. Collaborative Discussions: Engaging in discussions with peers to explore and debate the implications of dual perspectives in The Rime of the Ancient Mariner. Building on others' ideas and articulating one's own insights clearly and persuasively. 6. Adaptation of Ideas: Adapting and applying different ways of thinking to various contexts and tasks, demonstrating an understanding of formal English and sophisticated argumentation as needed.

Author’s Choices and Literary Techniques: • Analyzed the impact of the author’s choices on the development of ideas and elements in the text. • Explored how specific elements such as setting, character development, and sequence of events contribute to the text’s meaning. Understanding Figurative Language: • Demonstrated understanding of figurative language, word relationships, and nuances in word meanings, including connotative meanings. Evaluating Perspectives: • Evaluated perspectives and justified the more cogent viewpoint in related texts. • Analyzed different accounts of the same event or issue, using different media or formats. Synthesizing Information: • Synthesized complex information across multiple sources and formats to develop new interpretations.

multiple sources and formats to develop new interpretations.

- Resolve conflicting information and develop interpretations that go beyond explicit text information.

Writing

Crafting Arguments (ELA.W.AW.11–12.1):

- Write arguments to support claims in an analysis of substantive topics or texts, using valid reasoning and relevant and sufficient evidence.
- Construct well-supported argumentative essays that reflect an understanding of complex issues.

Developing and Strengthening Writing (ELA.W.WP.11–12.4):

- Develop and strengthen writing through planning, revising, editing, rewriting, and trying new approaches.
- Sustain effort to complete complex writing tasks, track and reflect on personal writing progress, and consult style manuals like MLA or APA.

Routine Writing (ELA.W.RW.11–12.7):

- Write routinely over extended and shorter time frames for a range of tasks and purposes, including research, reflection, and revision.

Command of Language (ELA.L.SS.11–12.1, ELA.L.KL.11–12.2):

- Demonstrate command of the system and structure of the English language when writing.
- Apply knowledge of language to make effective choices for meaning or style.

Clarifying Word Meanings (ELA.L.VL.11–12.3):

- Determine or clarify the meaning of unknown and multiple-meaning words and phrases.

Career Readiness, Life Literacies, and Key 21st Century Skills

Please tag the appropriate 2020 NJSL-CLKS standards that align with the grade band and content/skills of this unit. This is done by clicking "actions" and then "add standards".

9.2.12.CAP.2	Develop college and career readiness skills by participating in opportunities such as structured learning experiences, apprenticeships, and dual enrollment programs.
9.2.12.CAP.6	Identify transferable skills in career choices and design alternative career plans based on those skills.
9.2.12.CAP.13	Analyze how the economic, social, and political conditions of a time period can affect the labor market.
9.4.12.IML.1	Compare search browsers and recognize features that allow for filtering of information.

9.4.12.IML.2	Evaluate digital sources for timeliness, accuracy, perspective, credibility of the source, and relevance of information, in media, data, or other resources (e.g., NJSLSA.W8, Social Studies Practice: Gathering and Evaluating Sources).
9.4.12.IML.5	Evaluate, synthesize, and apply information on climate change from various sources appropriately (e.g., 2.1.12.CHSS.6, S.IC.B.4, S.IC.B.6, 8.1.12.DA.1, 6.1.12.GeoHE.14.a, 7.1.AL.PRSNT.2).
9.4.12.IML.7	Develop an argument to support a claim regarding a current workplace or societal/ethical issue such as climate change (e.g., NJSLSA.W1, 7.1.AL.PRSNT.4).
9.4.12.IML.8	Evaluate media sources for point of view, bias, and motivations (e.g., NJSLSA.R6, 7.1.AL.IPRET.6).
9.4.12.IML.9	Analyze the decisions creators make to reveal explicit and implicit messages within information and media (e.g., 1.5.12acc.C2a, 7.1.AL.IPRET.4).

Interdisciplinary Connections

How does this unit connect to standards in other disciplines? Add the appropriate NJ SLS here, keeping grade bands in mind. This is done by clicking "actions" and then "add standards".

1	Make sense of problems and persevere in solving them
2	Reason abstractly and quantitatively
3	Construct viable arguments and critique the reasoning of others
5	Use appropriate tools strategically
6	Attend to precision
7	Look for and make use of structure
8	Look for and express regularity in repeated reasoning
HS-LS2	Ecosystems: Interactions, Energy, and Dynamics
6.2.12.CivicsPR.2.a	Compare the principle ideas of the Enlightenment in Europe (e.g., political, social, gender, education) with similar ideas in Asia and the Muslim/Islamic empires of the Middle East and North Africa.
6.2.12.CivicsPI.3.a	Analyze the relationship between industrialization and the rise of democratic and social reforms, including the expansion of parliamentary government.
HS-LS2-4	Use mathematical representations to support claims for the cycling of matter and flow of energy among organisms in an ecosystem.
HS-LS2-6	Evaluate the claims, evidence, and reasoning that the complex interactions in ecosystems maintain relatively consistent numbers and types of organisms in stable conditions, but changing conditions may result in a new ecosystem.
HS-LS2-7	Design, evaluate, and refine a solution for reducing the impacts of human activities on the environment and biodiversity.
HS-LS2-8	Evaluate the evidence for the role of group behavior on individual and species' chances to survive and reproduce.
HS-LS3	Heredity: Inheritance and Variation of Traits
HS-LS3-2	Make and defend a claim based on evidence that inheritable genetic variations may result from: (1) new genetic combinations through meiosis, (2) viable errors occurring during replication, and/or (3) mutations caused by environmental factors.
HS-LS3-3	Apply concepts of statistics and probability to explain the variation and distribution of expressed traits in a population.

HS-LS4-1	Communicate scientific information that common ancestry and biological evolution are supported by multiple lines of empirical evidence.
HS-ESS2	Earth's Systems
HS-ESS2-5	Plan and conduct an investigation of the properties of water and its effects on Earth materials and surface processes.
HS-ESS2-7	Construct an argument based on evidence about the simultaneous coevolution of Earth's systems and life on Earth.
HS-ESS3	Earth and Human Activity
HS-ESS3-1	Construct an explanation based on evidence for how the availability of natural resources, occurrence of natural hazards, and climate change have influenced human activity.
