Targeted ELA Standards

Add the appropriate NJSLS ELA standards with which this unit aligns. This is done by clicking "actions" and then "add standards".

L.SS.11–12.1	Demonstrate command of the system and structure of the English language when writing or speaking.
L.SS.11–12.1.A	Apply the understanding that usage is a matter of convention, can change over time, and place, and is sometimes contested.
L.SS.11–12.1.B	Observe hyphenation conventions.
L.SS.11–12.1.C	Recognize spelling conventions.
L.KL.11–12.2	Apply knowledge of language to understand how language functions in different contexts, to make effective choices for meaning or style, and to comprehend more fully when reading or listening.
L.KL.11–12.2.A	Acquire and use accurately general academic and domain-specific words and phrases, sufficient for reading, writing, speaking, and listening at the college and career readiness level.
L.KL.11–12.2.B	Vary syntax for effect, apply an understanding of syntax to the study of complex texts.
L.KL.11–12.2.C	Demonstrate independence in gathering vocabulary knowledge when considering a word or phrase important to comprehension or expression.

L.VL.11–12.3	Determine or clarify the meaning of unknown and multiple-meaning words and phrases based on grades 11–12 reading and content, including technical meanings, choosing flexibly from a range of strategies.
L.VL.11–12.3.A	Use context (e.g., the overall meaning of a sentence, paragraph, or text; a word's position or function in a sentence) as a clue to the meaning of a word or phrase.
L.VL.11–12.3.B	Identify and correctly use patterns of word changes that indicate different meanings or parts of speech (e.g., conceive, conception, conceivable).
L.VL.11–12.3.C	Analyze how an author or speaker uses and refines the meaning of a key term or terms over the course of a text or discussion.
L.VL.11–12.3.D	Consult general and specialized reference materials (e.g., dictionaries, glossaries, thesauruses), both print and digital, to find the pronunciation of a word or determine or clarify its precise meaning, its part of speech, its etymology, or its standard usage.
L.VL.11–12.3.E	Verify the preliminary determination of the meaning of a word or phrase (e.g., by checking the inferred meaning in context or in a dictionary).
L.VI.11–12.4	Demonstrate understanding of figurative language, word relationships, and nuances in word meanings, including connotative meanings.
L.VI.11–12.4.A	Interpret figures of speech (e.g., hyperbole, paradox) in context and analyze their role in the text.
L.VI.11–12.4.B	Analyze nuances in the meaning of words with similar denotations.
L.VI.11–12.4.C	Analyze how the meaning of a key term or terms develops or is refined over the course of a text.
L.VI.11–12.4.D	Analyze the impact of specific word choices on meaning and tone, including language that is particularly fresh, engaging, or beautiful.
RL.CR.11–12.1	Accurately cite strong and thorough textual evidence and make relevant connections to strongly support a comprehensive analysis of multiple aspects of what a literary text says explicitly and inferentially, as well as interpretations of the text; this may include determining where the text leaves matters uncertain.
RI.CR.11–12.1	Accurately cite a range of thorough textual evidence and make relevant connections to strongly support a comprehensive analysis of multiple aspects of what an informational text says explicitly and inferentially, as well as interpretations of the text.
RL.CI.11–12.2	Determine two or more themes of a literary text and analyze how they are developed and refined over the course of the text, including how they interact and build on one another to produce a complex account or analysis; provide an objective summary of the text.
RI.CI.11–12.2	Determine two or more central ideas of an informational text and analyze how they are developed and refined over the course of a text, including how they interact and build on one another to provide a complex account or analysis; provide an objective summary of the text.
RL.IT.11–12.3	Analyze the impact of the author's choices as they develop ideas throughout the text regarding how to develop and relate elements of a story or drama (e.g., where a story is set, how the action is ordered, how the characters are introduced and developed).
RI.IT.11–12.3	Analyze the impact of an author's choices as they develop ideas throughout the text regarding a complex set of ideas or sequence of events, and explain how specific individuals, ideas, or events interact and develop.
RL.TS.11–12.4	Evaluate the author's choices concerning the structure and the effectiveness of specific parts of a text (e.g., the choice of where to begin or end a story, the choice to provide a comedic or tragic resolution) and how they contribute to its overall structure and meaning, as well as its aesthetic impact.
RL.PP.11–12.5	Evaluate perspectives/lenses from two or more texts on related topics and justify the more cogent viewpoint (e.g., different accounts of the same event or issue, use of different media or formats).

W.NW.11–12.3	Write narratives to develop real or imagined experiences or events using effective technique, well-chosen details, and well-structured event sequences.
W.NW.11–12.3.A	Engage and orient the reader by setting out a problem, situation, or observation and its significance, establishing one or multiple point(s) of view, and introducing a narrator and/or characters; create a smooth progression of experiences or events.
W.NW.11–12.3.B	Use narrative techniques, such as dialogue, pacing, description, reflection, and multiple plot lines, to develop experiences, events, and/or characters.
W.NW.11–12.3.C	Use a variety of techniques to sequence events so that they build on one another to create a coherent whole and build toward a particular tone and outcome (e.g., a sense of mystery, suspense, growth, or resolution).
W.NW.11–12.3.D	Use precise words and phrases, telling details, and sensory language to convey a vivid picture of the experiences, events, setting, and/or characters.
W.NW.11–12.3.E	Provide a conclusion that follows from and reflects on what is experienced, observed, or resolved over the course of the narrative.
W.WP.11–12.4	Develop and strengthen writing as needed by planning, revising, editing, rewriting, trying a new approach; sustaining effort to complete complex writing tasks; tracking and reflecting on personal writing progress (e.g., using portfolios, journals, conferencing); or consulting a style manual (such as MLA or APA Style), focusing on addressing what is most significant for a specific purpose and audience.
W.RW.11–12.7	Write routinely over extended time frames (time for research, reflection, and revision) and shorter time frames (a single sitting or a day or two) for a range of tasks, purposes.
SL.PE.11–12.1	Initiate and participate effectively in a range of collaborative discussions (one-on-one, in groups, and teacher-led) with peers on grades 11–12 topics, texts, and issues, building on others' ideas and expressing their own clearly and persuasively.
SL.PE.11–12.1.A	Come to discussions prepared, having read and researched material under study; explicitly draw on that preparation by referring to evidence from texts and other research on the topic or issue to stimulate a thoughtful, well-reasoned exchange of ideas.
SL.PE.11–12.1.B	Collaborate with peers to promote civil, democratic discussions and decision-making, set clear goals and assessments (e.g., student developed rubrics), and establish individual roles as needed.
SL.PE.11–12.1.C	Propel conversations by posing and responding to questions that probe reasoning and evidence; ensure a hearing for a full range of positions on a topic or issue; clarify, verify, or challenge ideas and conclusions; and promote divergent and creative perspectives.
SL.PE.11–12.1.D	Respond thoughtfully to diverse perspectives; synthesize comments, claims, and evidence made on all sides of an issue; resolve contradictions when possible; and determine what additional information or research is required to deepen the investigation or complete the task.
SL.II.11–12.2	Integrate multiple sources of information presented in diverse formats and media (e.g., visually, quantitatively, orally) in order to make informed decisions and solve problems, evaluating the credibility and accuracy of each source and noting any discrepancies among the data.
SL.ES.11–12.3	Evaluate a speaker's point of view, reasoning, and use of evidence and rhetoric, assessing the stance, premises, links among ideas, word choice, points of emphasis, and tone used.
SL.AS.11–12.6	Adapt speech to a variety of contexts and tasks, demonstrating a command of formal English when indicated or appropriate.

Rationale

This unit invites students to critically explore the age-old question of free will vs. fate through the lens of Shakespeare's Macbeth, a timeless literary work that challenges readers to consider the extent to which individuals control their own destinies. As students read and analyze the play, they will examine how personal ambition, external influence (such as prophecy or persuasion), and moral choice intersect to shape the lives and consequences of the characters.

Macbeth presents a compelling exploration of moral ambiguity, psychological conflict, and the influence of supernatural forces, all of which provoke thoughtful inquiry into whether we are in control of our choices—or shaped by forces beyond ourselves. The literary complexity of Shakespeare's language and character development provides rich opportunities for close reading, textual analysis, and discussion of abstract ideas in a high-interest dramatic format. The theme of free will vs. determinism remains deeply relevant to students' lives as they navigate personal choices, peer pressure, social systems, and expectations.

Through a focus on narrative writing, students will creatively respond to the themes and conflicts in the text by imagining alternate paths, internal conflicts, or untold perspectives that deepen their engagement with the idea of personal agency and responsibility. Narrative writing allows students to internalize complex themes by reimagining them through their own creative lens.

Writing original narratives or alternate perspectives/scenes based on Macbeth deepens comprehension and encourages empathy by asking students to think like a character or reframe a moment of moral or psychological tension. Students strengthen key narrative writing skills such as character development, internal conflict, pacing, and dialogue, while also integrating literary devices they observe in Shakespeare's work (e.g., dramatic irony, foreshadowing).

The tension between individual choice and external control is a theme students encounter regularly—through societal systems, cultural norms, technology, relationships, and personal development. This unit encourages students to think critically about those influences and express their understanding through both analytical discussion and creative expression.

Enduring Understandings

Content Specific	Skills Specific
▪ Exploring Timeless Human Struggles: Through characters like Macbeth, students gain insight into how individuals wrestle with personal choice, external pressure, and moral responsibility. Additionally, students analyze the tension between free will and fate. Shakespeare's use of prophecy, guilt, and ambition allows readers to analyze how abstract concepts like destiny and agency play out in human behavior. ▪ Internal and External Conflicts: By studying Macbeth's internal and external conflicts, students examine how choice and consequence shape identity and outcome. Authors use literary elements such as character development, conflict, and symbolism to explore philosophical themes. ▪ Narrative Writing: Narrative writing is a powerful tool for exploring and expressing complex human experiences. Through original storytelling, students can creatively reimagine moments, motivations, and	▪ Close Reading: Close reading helps uncover deeper meaning in complex texts. By analyzing word choice, tone, and structure, readers can interpret author intent and character motivations. ▪ Textual Evidence: Strong readers support their analysis with relevant textual evidence. Citing specific lines from the text strengthens interpretations and deepens literary discussions. • Character Development: Understanding character development and conflict is essential to interpreting themes. Tracking how characters change reveals how themes such as fate, ambition, and free will unfold. Creating believable characters involves revealing internal conflict, motivation, and moral dilemmas. ▪ Narrative Writing: Effective narratives use structure, description, and pacing to engage readers. A clear beginning, middle, and end, consequences, deepening their understanding of character and theme. Whether analyzing Shakespeare or crafting their own narratives, students learn that form and content work together to create meaning. Writers make purposeful choices in structure, point of view, and tone to reflect internal conflict and reveal themes.

- Historical and Cultural Context:

Understanding the historical and cultural context of a text enhances interpretation of its themes. Examining the beliefs and societal structures of Shakespeare's time helps clarify how ideas about fate, power, and agency influenced Macbeth. Characters' decisions in literature often reflect the larger question of how much control people truly have over their lives.

along with strong transitions, enhance storytelling. Writers use character voice and point of view to explore complex emotions and decisions. Narrative writing can be used to creatively examine and reflect on literary themes. Writing from alternate perspectives or reimagined scenes allows deeper insight into characters and thematic ideas.

- Mastery of Figurative Language and Grammar: Purposeful word choice and figurative language enhance a narrative's tone and meaning. Using imagery, metaphor, and symbolism helps convey mood and theme effectively. Mastery of grammar and conventions strengthens clarity and voice in writing. Correct punctuation, sentence variety, and grammar contribute to more engaging and professional storytelling.
- Collaborative Discussion: Collaborative discussion builds deeper understanding of literature and writing. Engaging in academic conversations allows students to hear multiple interpretations and refine their own thinking. Oral performance of literature supports comprehension and interpretation. Reading dramatic texts aloud helps students explore tone, pacing, and emotional depth.

Essential Questions

Spiraling for Mastery

Content or Skill for this Unit	Spiral Focus from Previous Unit
▪ Alternative Ending: Students craft an alternative ending to the play, considering how different choices by the characters could have led to a different outcome. ▪ Prequel/Sequel: Students write a prequel or sequel to Macbeth, imagining events that happen before the play begins or after it ends. ▪ Diary Entries: Students create diary entries for a character, reflecting on key events from the play and how they affect the character's development. ▪ Creative Retellings: Students rewrite a scene from the play in a different setting or era, maintaining the original themes and character motivations but adapting the narrative to a new context (e.g., a modern-day political thriller).	• 9th-11th Grade Content and Skills to Spiral Close Reading and Textual Analysis ▪ 9th Grade: Introduction to close reading through simpler texts, focusing on identifying literary devices (e.g., imagery, simile, metaphor) and basic thematic analysis. ▪ 10th Grade: Developing deeper analytical skills with more complex texts, including understanding character motivations and thematic development. ▪ 11th Grade: Applying close reading to more advanced literature, such as American or British literature, with a focus on symbolism, irony, and complex themes.

Content

1. Plot and Structure

- Detailed analysis of the plot, focusing on the rise and fall of Macbeth.
- Understanding the five-act structure of Shakespearean tragedy.
- Exploration of key scenes and their significance (e.g., the witches' prophecies, Duncan's murder, Banquo's ghost).

2. Themes

- Ambition and power.
- Fate vs. free will.
- Guilt and conscience.
- The corrupting influence of unchecked ambition.
- The natural vs. the supernatural.

3. Character Analysis

- Deep analysis of major characters (Macbeth, Lady Macbeth, the witches, Banquo, Duncan, Macduff).
- Character motivations and development over the course of the play.
- Tragic hero analysis of Macbeth.

2. Literary Devices and Techniques

- 9th Grade: Basic identification of literary devices in poetry and prose.
- 10th Grade: Understanding the effects of literary devices on meaning and tone.
- 11th Grade: Analyzing how authors use literary devices to develop themes and characters.

3. Theme Analysis

- 9th Grade: Identifying and summarizing themes in literature.
- 10th Grade: Analyzing how themes are developed across a text.
- 11th Grade: Comparing and contrasting themes across different works of literature.

4. Character Analysis

- 9th Grade: Basic understanding of character roles and motivations.
- 10th Grade: Exploring character development and changes throughout a text.
- 11th Grade: Analyzing complex characters and their relationships within a text.

5. Narrative Writing

- 9th Grade: Writing simple narrative pieces, such as personal narratives or retellings of stories.
- 10th Grade: Developing more complex narrative structures, including

4. Literary Devices and Language

- Examination of Shakespeare's use of language, including imagery, symbolism, and motifs (e.g., blood, darkness, the unnatural).
- Analysis of soliloquies and their role in revealing character psychology.
- Understanding of meter, rhyme, and rhythm, especially in the context of Shakespearean blank verse.

5. Historical and Social Context

- The Jacobean context, including beliefs about kingship, the divine right of kings, and witchcraft.
- Influence of the Gunpowder Plot on the play.
- The role of gender and power dynamics in the play.

6. Critical Perspectives

- Exploration of various critical interpretations (e.g., feminist, psychoanalytic, historical).
- Discussion of how different productions and different points of view and incorporating dialogue.

▪ 11th Grade:

Experimenting with narrative techniques, such as unreliable narrators or non-linear plots.

6. Understanding Historical and Social Context

- 9th Grade: Introducing the idea of historical context influencing literature.
- 10th Grade: Analyzing how historical and social contexts shape characters, themes, and plots in literature.
- 11th Grade: Connecting literature to broader historical and cultural movements.

adaptations have interpreted Macbeth.

Skills

1. Critical Reading and Analysis

- Analyzing text for deeper meanings and connections to themes, characters, and motifs.
- Interpreting complex language and identifying literary devices.

2. Discussion and Presentation

- Participating in discussions about themes, characters, and interpretations of the play.
- Delivering presentations on specific aspects of the play (e.g., character analysis, thematic exploration).

3. Narrative/Creative Interpretation

- Engaging in creative projects, such as modern adaptations of scenes, rewriting soliloquies, or staging a scene with a specific directorial vision.
- Exploring how different media (film, theater) interpret and adapt the play. Character Perspective Narratives: Students write first-person narratives from the perspective of a character, exploring their thoughts and feelings during key moments in the play (e.g., Macbeth after hearing the witches' prophecies, Lady Macbeth after Duncan's murder).

9.2.12.CAP.2	Develop college and career readiness skills by participating in opportunities such as structured learning experiences, apprenticeships, and dual enrollment programs.
9.2.12.CAP.3	Investigate how continuing education contributes to one's career and personal growth.
9.4.12.CI.3	Investigate new challenges and opportunities for personal growth, advancement, and transition (e.g., 2.1.12.PGD.1).
9.4.12.CT.1	Identify problem-solving strategies used in the development of an innovative product or practice (e.g., 1.1.12acc.C1b, 2.2.12.PF.3).
9.4.12.CT.2	Explain the potential benefits of collaborating to enhance critical thinking and problem solving (e.g., 1.3E.12profCR3.a).
9.4.12.CT.4	Participate in online strategy and planning sessions for course-based, school-based, or other project and determine the strategies that contribute to effective outcomes.
9.2.12.CAP.13	Analyze how the economic, social, and political conditions of a time period can affect the labor market.
9.4.12.IML.1	Compare search browsers and recognize features that allow for filtering of information.
9.4.12.TL.1	Assess digital tools based on features such as accessibility options, capacities, and utility for accomplishing a specified task (e.g., W.11-12.6.).
9.4.12.TL.3	Analyze the effectiveness of the process and quality of collaborative environments.
9.4.12.TL.4	Collaborate in online learning communities or social networks or virtual worlds to analyze and propose a resolution to a real-world problem (e.g., 7.1.AL.IPERS.6).

Interdisciplinary Connections

How does this unit connect to standards in other disciplines? Add the appropriate NJ SLS here, keeping grade bands in mind. This is done by clicking "actions" and then "add standards".

1.4.2.Cr	Creating
1	Make sense of problems and persevere in solving them
2	Reason abstractly and quantitatively
3	Construct viable arguments and critique the reasoning of others
5	Use appropriate tools strategically
1.4.2.Cr2	Organizing and developing ideas.
6	Attend to precision
7	Look for and make use of structure
8	Look for and express regularity in repeated reasoning
1.4.2.Pr	Performing
1.4.2.Pr4	Selecting, analyzing, and interpreting work.
1.4.2.Pr6	Conveying meaning through art.
1.4.2.Re8	Interpreting intent and meaning.
1.4.2.Re9	Applying criteria to evaluate products.
1.4.2.Cn11	Relating artistic ideas and works within societal, cultural, and historical contexts to deepen understanding.
HS-PS2	Motion and Stability: Forces and Interactions
HS-PS2-6	Communicate scientific and technical information about why the molecular-level structure is important in the functioning of designed materials.
HS-LS3	Heredity: Inheritance and Variation of Traits
HS-LS3-3	Apply concepts of statistics and probability to explain the variation and distribution of expressed traits in a population.
HS-LS4	Biological Evolution: Unity and Diversity
HS-LS4-4	Construct an explanation based on evidence for how natural selection leads to adaptation of populations.
HS-ESS3	Earth and Human Activity
HS-ESS3-1	Construct an explanation based on evidence for how the availability of natural resources, occurrence of natural hazards, and climate change have influenced human activity.
HS-ESS3-4	Evaluate or refine a technological solution that reduces impacts of human activities on climate change and other natural systems.
HS-ESS3-6	Use a computational representation to illustrate the relationships among Earth systems and how those relationships are being modified due to human activity (i.e., climate change).
SOC.9-12.1.1.1	Compare present and past events to evaluate the consequences of past decisions and to apply lessons learned.
SOC.9-12.1.2.2	Relate current events to the physical and human characteristics of places and regions.
SOC.9-12.1.3.3	Gather relevant information from multiple sources representing a wide range of views (including historians and experts) while using the date, context, and corroborative value of the sources to guide the selection.
