Integration of 21st Century Themes and Skills

CRP.K-12.CRP5.1

Career-ready individuals understand the interrelated nature of their actions and regularly make decisions that positively impact and/or mitigate negative impact on other people, organization, and the environment. They are aware of and utilize new technologies, understandings, procedures, materials, and regulations affecting the nature of their work as it relates to the impact on the social condition, the environment and the profitability of the organization.

Career-ready individuals communicate thoughts, ideas, and action plans with clarity, whether using written, verbal, and/or visual methods. They communicate in the workplace with clarity and purpose to make maximum use of their own and others' time. They are excellent writers; they master conventions, word choice, and organization, and use effective tone and presentation skills to articulate ideas. They are skilled at interacting with others; they are active listeners and speak clearly and with purpose. Career-ready individuals think about the audience for their communication and prepare accordingly to ensure the desired outcome.

Differentiation

HA Chapter 3 Differentiation

Provide Sample Cartoons For the Preview activity, prepare a sample cartoon strip to show as a model. Your example might be student work saved from the previous year. You might also show samples of comic strips from the newspaper to demonstrate the use of speech bubbles.

Complete the Reading Notes as a Class Rather than have pairs read and take notes on Sections 3.3 to 3.7 at one time, do the following for each section to guide the class to complete the Reading Notes:

- Ask, What is the title of this section? What do you see in the image? What do you think this section will talk about?
- Have students read the first paragraph in the section and fill in the first Reading Notes question about the Paleolithic Age. Review the answer as a class.
- Then ask, How do you think daily life will change in the Neolithic Age? Tell students to read the rest of that section to see if their guesses are correct. Then have students complete their Reading Notes.
- Have volunteers read their speech bubbles about Neolithic changes.

Support the Reading Notes Provide a Word Bank for each section of notes. Tell students that they should include the following terms or phrases in their answers:

Section 2: hunter-gatherer, food, shelter, fertile

Section 3: dangerous, food supply, milk, meat, crops

Section 4: tents, wild animals, mud, cooking pit, protection

Section 5: settle, communities, defend

Section 6: food, specialized skills, beautiful, variety

Section 7: nearby, trade, travel, resources, spread ideas

Advanced Learners

Writing Assignment

Add the following item to the directions on Student Handout 3A:

Include one additional story page on which you explain how one of the key changes from Paleolithic to Neolithic life paved the way for modern society. For example, Modern Maria might explain that because Neolithic Nel and Nick began to specialize in one job, people in our modern society attend college or technical schools to learn specific skills.
