

Jan. Grade 8 Literary Analysis through Music

Content Area: Gifted and Talented
Course(s):
Time Period: January
Length: 6-8 Weeks
Status: Published

Unit Overview

This unit will ask students to listen to music, read lyrics and watch music videos for the purpose of literary analysis.

Enduring Understandings

Literary analysis is a process by which we construct meaning about the information being communicated.

Essential Questions

How do you analyze in order to construct meaning (through words, images and sounds)?

What is theme?

What is figurative language and how do you recognize it?

What is the message portrayed in individual songs?

What is a social conscious and in what ways does music have a social conscious?

Instructional Strategies & Learning Activities

1. Refresher of figurative language. Give each student a flip book of fig. lang. Go through each one and give more examples from example sheet and as a class.
 2. Fig. lang. in Song lyrics- watch youtube video that gives examples of various fig. lang.
<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=-S-uxMeNnt4>
 3. Listen to Katy Perry's Firework video and annotate the lyrics for all the fig. lang. they can find.
<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=6BtI43kqkOI>
 - Choose one song (with partner or alone) and annotate the lyrics. Finish for homework.
1. Share songs they chose and give a few examples of fig. lang. they discovered.

Theme in songs- discuss theme and universal truths. Look at examples. Watch Glee LEAN ON ME video https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=sf9_lkf7BtA and complete handout about the theme. Watch John Mayer

WAITING ON THE WORLD TO CHANGE video <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=oBlxScJ5rIY> and complete hand out for theme. Choose a song of their choice and analyze the same way. Finish for homework

1. Share songs they chose from homework.

Theme of “greatness”- Use HALL OF FAME video <http://www.vevo.com/watch/the-script/hall-of-fame/GB1101200733> . Analyze the lyrics, as well as the video itself for how greatness is portrayed and how everyday people can be heroes. Writing assignment: write journal entry as one of the people in the video.

1. Watch DEMONS https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=mWRsgZuwf_8&feature=kp by Imagine Dragons. What demons to we all run from- what issues or stories do we hide? Analyze lyrics and video for examples of demons. Explore one of the characters from the video and infer more about their life than what is revealed in the video. Use that person as a character in a short story, poem, diary entry, news article...
2. Watch Stereo Hearts <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=T3E9Wjbq44E> by Gym Class Heroes ft. Adam Levine. Compare lyrics to A Red, Red Rose poem by Robert Burns. Answer questions comparing the two.
3. Listen to “I bet my life:” by Imagine Dragons. Pass out lyrics. Analyze lyrics with questioning sheet. Discuss as a class. Pair up or groups of three and work out the overall concept for the music video. They will watch the real video at the end. What do they think it should look like? They need to complete- as a group- the overall concept sheet, the plot mountain sheet and the characters/setting. Then watch real video at end. This may take a few periods.
4. FINAL PROJECT 1... Song for social conscious- students listen to song BRAVE <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=dyAfjUHIFSM> . What is the message? Label lyrics for VOICE and SILENCE. VOICE is having a say or opinion. SILENCE is preventing a person or group from speaking out. Read Malala’s address to UN. Label her speech for VOICE and SILENCE. Answer essay question comparing Malala to song BRAVE. Students then pick their own song with a social message. Identify words/phrases to develop the message. Use three sources to research the social message and write an argument for or against the message in song. Present in class.
5. FINAL PROJECT 2- Write your own song, pick a poem and create the music accompaniment, take an existing song and map out the music video... Choice for final creative project. Students must evaluate the theme and figurative language used, as well as the message. The creative expression part is left up to them.

Differentiation

- Understand that gifted students, just like all students, come to school to learn and be challenged.
- Pre-assess your students. Find out their areas of strength as well as those areas you may need to address before students move on.
- Consider grouping gifted students together for at least part of the school day.
- Plan for differentiation. Consider pre-assessments, extension activities, and compacting the curriculum.
- Use phrases like "You've shown you don't need more practice" or "You need more practice" instead of words like "qualify" or "eligible" when referring to extension work.
- Encourage high-ability students to take on challenges. Because they're often used to getting good grades, gifted students may be risk averse.
- Definitions of Differentiation Components:
 - Content – the specific information that is to be taught in the lesson/unit/course of instruction.
 - Process – how the student will acquire the content information.
 - Product – how the student will demonstrate understanding of the content.
 - Learning Environment – the environment where learning is taking place including physical location and/or student grouping

Differentiation occurring in this unit:

Product (choice), process (various methods for analyzing and interpreting lyrics)

Benchmark Assessments

Benchmark Assessments are given periodically (e.g., at the end of every quarter or as frequently as once per month) throughout a school year to establish baseline achievement data and measure progress toward a standard or set of academic standards and goals.

Schoolwide Benchmark assessments:

Aimsweb benchmarks 3X a year

Linkit Benchmarks 3X a year

Additional Benchmarks used in this unit:

Teacher observation and data to track growth over time and grade levels.

Formative Assessments

Assessment allows both instructor and student to monitor progress towards achieving learning objectives, and can be approached in a variety of ways. Formative assessment refers to tools that identify misconceptions, struggles, and learning gaps along the way and assess how to close those gaps. It includes effective tools for helping to shape learning, and can even bolster students' abilities to take ownership of their learning when they understand that the goal is to improve learning, not apply final marks (Trumbull and Lash, 2013). It can include students assessing themselves, peers, or even the instructor, through writing, quizzes, conversation, and more. In short, formative assessment occurs throughout a class or course, and seeks to improve student achievement of learning objectives through approaches that can support specific student needs (Theal and Franklin, 2010, p. 151).

Formative Assessments used in this unit:

Weekly class work where students are asked to analyze one or more elements of a song or music video.

Summative Assessments

Summative assessments evaluate student learning, knowledge, proficiency, or success at the conclusion of an instructional period, like a unit, course, or program. Summative assessments are almost always formally graded and often heavily weighted (though they do not need to be). Summative assessment can be used to great effect in conjunction and alignment with formative assessment, and instructors can consider a variety of ways to combine these approaches.

Summative assessments for this unit:

Two final projects described above scored with rubric.
