Unit Overview

There are all kinds of people in this world, and everyone deserves to be happy and healthy.

Enduring Understandings

Although people and families may look different, dress different or have different beliefs, everyone deserves to be happy and treated with respect.

Essential Questions

What kind of choices might people make to be happy that are different but the same?

How do families help keep us safe?

What kinds of differences can there be in families that help them to be happy?

What do we all need to be happy and healthy?

How can we show our feeling for others in a happy and healthy way?

Instructional Strategies & Learning Activities

Per student developmental appropriateness:

Discussions will be integrated into Health and Safety instruction, Social Emotional Learning instruction and particularly when bullying and kindness are part of the discussion.

General education teachers will address these standards during discussions, and reading books about families, and how all families can look different, but all can be healthy and happy.

These standards will be addressed when instruction addresses diversity, tolerance and acceptance for all.

Students will be encouraged to talk about their families, and teachers will instruct the students to support all their classmates in being accepted no matter the differences.

Integration of Career Readiness, Life Literacies and Key Skills

TECH.9.4.2.GCA

Global and Cultural Awareness

TECH.9.4.2.GCA.1
