1) What makes a family?

2) A family can be..?

3) Who can be considered to be your family?

• Teacher starts off by stating that every family is unique and different. • Teacher will show students various pictures of different family types. (Nuclear, single, same sex, and etc.) • Teachers would tell students about their family and what makes their family unique and special (family traditions). • The teacher would then ask the students what makes a family special. the teacher would ask the students to turn and talk. • Prior to reading the book, the teacher would ask for a few examples of what might make a family special. The teacher would then set a purpose for reading by asking the students to watch for what makes a family special in the book they are about to read aloud.
