

Night Quiz

Answer all questions and follow all instructions. Good luck, may the odds be ever in your favor, may the force be with you, etc.

(NJSLRS R.1, R.2, R.3, R.4, R.5, R.6)

* Required

1. Name *

Multiple Choice

Choose the best answer (1 point each)

2. 1. What can you infer as to why Elie begins with the story of Moishe the Beadle? 1 point

Mark only one oval.

- A. To introduce a character.
- B. To highlight society's perception of a character.
- C. To foreshadow future events.
- D. To support Elie's close relationship with his religion.

3. 2. Which of the following best identifies the tone of the hanging scene? 1 point

Mark only one oval.

- A. Somber
- B. Devastating
- C. Nonchalant
- D. Nostalgic

4. 3. What can you infer as to why the inmate urged Elie to say he was eighteen years old? 1 point

Mark only one oval.

- A. Elie looked older than his real age.
- B. Children were usually murdered immediately.
- C. Eighteen year olds were assigned the easiest jobs.
- D. He would be able to stay with his father.

5. 4. What do you think the quote, "the soup tasted like corpses" implies? 1 point

Mark only one oval.

- A. Death is a dominant thought in everyone's minds.
- B. There are dead bodies strewn everywhere in the camp.
- C. Inmates are eating their soup in fear.
- D. The ashes from the crematorium were falling into the soup pots.

6. 5. How does Elie feel when he witnesses the Gypsy hitting his father? 1 point

Mark only one oval.

- A. He feels glad that his father is punished.
- B. He feels helpless because he cannot defend his father.
- C. He feels angry witnessing his father's treatment.
- D. He does not understand why the Gypsy hit his father.

7. 6. What does the repetition of the phrase, "Never shall I forget..." signify? 1 point

Mark only one oval.

- A. It signifies the night that changed Elie's life forever.
- B. It signifies the fear he felt upon his arrival at the camp.
- C. It signifies the talent of the author and his craft.
- D. It signifies the loss of his innocence.

Short Answer

Answer the following questions in 2-3 sentences. You must provide an example to support each of your claims. (5 points each)

8. 1. What do Mrs. Schachter's visions foreshadow? 5 points

9. 2. Provide two examples of resistance that are present in the novel. 5 points

10. 3. Provide two examples of conflict that are present in the novel (internal or external). 5 points

11. 4. Choose one strong character relationship and provide two examples from the text that prove its significance. 5 points

12. 5. Identify two examples of figurative language. Write the quote and the type of figurative language it is (you may use your charts for this question). 5 points

This content is neither created nor endorsed by Google.

