

Instructional Lesson Plan

Content Area(s)/Course/Grade: First Grade/Language Arts	Unit: Text Set 16
Lesson Topic: Celebrating Diversity -	Approx. Date/s: May - MP4
Diversity Integration Topic: Asian American and Pacific Islander heritages	NJSL Standard/s: RI.1.3.
Textbook, Materials, Resources: My Name is Yoon Pencil Construction paper Glue Korean Letter cut outs
Lesson Objective:
Students will be able to learn about and connect to the Asian American and Pacific Islander heritages by writing their name in Korean
Instructional Delivery
Culturally Responsive Teaching strategy: Awareness
Procedures: Read aloud of My Name is Yoon Students will then be given a worksheet with the Korean Alphabet. They will cut out the letters they need to make their name and they will form their name by glueing the letters to a piece of construction paper.
Assessment/Evaluation
Formative/Summative: Name cut out activity
Closure: Students will share their names in Korean with one another.	