Essential Questions

- How do performers select repertoire?
- How do musicians improve the quality of their performance?
- When is a performance judged ready to present? How do context and the manner in which musical work is presented influence audience response?
- How is the body used as an instrument for technical and artistic expression?
- What must a dancer do to prepare the mind and body for artistic expression?
- How do theatre artists comprehend the essence of drama processes and theatre experiences?

Big Ideas

- Proper vocal production and vocal placement improve vocal quality.
- Harmonizing requires singing ability and active listening skills.
- Individual voice ranges change with time.
- Performers' interest in and knowledge of musical works, understanding of their own technical skill, and the context for a performance influence the selection of repertoire.
- To express their musical ideas, musicians analyze, evaluate and refine their performance over time through openness to new ideas, persistence and the application of appropriate criteria.
- Musicians judge performance based on criteria that vary across time, place and cultures. The context and how a work is presented influence audience response.
- Select, Analyze, Interpret, Rehearse, Evaluate, Refine, Present

CSDT Technology Integration

8.1.5.A.1 Select and use the appropriate digital tools and resources to accomplish a variety of tasks including solving problems.
