

Unit 3 Responding and Connecting

Content Area: Music
Course(s): Music 6
Time Period: Semester
Length: 10 weeks, 2X per week
Status: Published

Essential Question

- How do music and culture reflect each other?
- How do individuals choose music to experience? How does understanding the structure and context of music inform a response?
- How do we judge the quality of musical works and performances?
- How do we discern the musical creators' and performers' expressive intent?
- How do musicians make meaningful connections to creating, performing, and responding?
- How do the other arts, other disciplines, contexts and daily life inform creating, performing and responding to music?

Big Ideas

- Individuals' selection of musical works is influenced by their interests, experiences, understandings, and purposes.
- Response to music is informed by analyzing context (e.g. social, cultural, historical) and how creators or performers manipulate the elements of music.
- The personal evaluation of musical works and performance is informed by analysis, interpretation and established criteria.
- Through their use of elements and structures of music, creators and performers provide clues to their expressive intent.
- Musicians connect their personal interests, experiences, ideas and knowledge to creating, performing and responding.
- Technological changes have and will continue to substantially influence the development and nature of the arts
