

Women's History Month- MARCH

- A classroom bulletin board or hallway display should be up for the month
- At least two Women's History Month activities should be planned.
Suggestions:

1. What is Women's History Month and why do we celebrate it? Watch video from PBS Learning

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=5JB1-W29Ng>

2. Word Search - Here is a word search. Do you know these famous women? <https://i.infopls.com/fe/pc/0,,10481-529,00.pdf>

3. Women have been making history in music for years. There are many famous female musicians. Do you recognize this one? Connie Francis (born Concetta Rosa Maria Franconero) was born in Newark, NJ. "Who's Sorry Now?" was one of her hits.

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=2XKe-w6MSD4>

4. Do you know any famous female scientists or mathematicians? Have a discussion with students about any such women they are aware of. Or you might use a read aloud about one of them. Here are some links to read alouds/articles about some famous female scientists.

PV

I am Jane Goodall

Ada Lovelace

Marie Curie

Mae Jemison

JK

Jennifer Doudna

5. Who are you thankful for? Surely there is some woman in your life that has influenced you or done something nice for you. Write them a quick thank you note to let them know you appreciate them. This printable Thank you coloring page (no writing involved) or Printable thank you (some writing required) can be colored and/or completed to show your gratitude. Or you can provide a blank sheet of paper for students to make their own Thank you card.