Essential Questions

- How am I growing as a reader?
- How am I showing respect and understanding during instructional reading time?

Big Ideas

Core Concept:

Increasingly challenging texts promote strong reading and comprehension skills.

Core Reading:

Self-selected readings spanning an array of genres.

Core Writing:

Writers and readers notebook responses, and collection of best works.

Guided Reading:

Selections or as determined by the teacher based on ability level.

CSDT Technology Integration

8.1.5.D.1 Understand the need for and use of copyrights.

8.1.5.D.2 Analyze the resource citations in online materials for proper use.

Activity:

Students will read all genres of literature on grade level using digital resources. Students will use the information from these digital resources within their research report and learn how to cite online materials using Google Docs.

Enduring Understandings

Anchor Standards
NJSLSA.R.10 Read and comprehend complex literary and informational texts independently and proficiently with scaffolding as needed.

RL.CR.3.1 Ask and answer questions and make relevant connections to demonstrate understanding of a literary text, referring explicitly to textual evidence as the basis for the answers.

RL.CI.3.2 Recount stories (in oral and written form) key details from a text and explain how they support the theme (in literary texts, e.g. fables, folktales, and myths from diverse cultures)

RL.IT. 3.3 Describe the development of individual character's traits, motivations, or feelings and explain how their actions contribute to the plot within a text.

RL.TS.3.4 Utilize and reference features of a text when writing or speaking about a text, referring to parts of stories, dramas, and poems, using terms such as chapter, scene, and stanza; describe how each successive part builds on earlier sections.

RL.MF.3.6 [M] Explain how specific aspects of a text's illustrations contribute to what is conveyed by the words in a story. (e.g, create mood, emphasize aspects of a character or setting).
