Enduring Understandings

Literature

RL.CR.5.1 Quote accurately from a literary text, when explaining what the text says explicitly and make relevant connections when drawing inferences from the text.

RL.CI.5.2 Determine the theme of a literary text (e.g. stories, plays or poetry) and explain how it is supported by key details; summarize the text

RL.IT.5.3 Analyze the impact of two or more individuals and events throughout the course of a text, comparing and contrasting two or more characters, settings, or events in a story or drama, drawing on specific text (e.g., how characters interact).

RL.MF.5.6 Analyze how visual and multimedia elements contribute to the meaning, tone, or beauty of a text (e.g., graphic novel, multimedia presentation of fiction, folktale, myth, poem).

RL.CT5.8 Compare and contrast the authors' approaches across two or more literary texts within the same genre or about the same or similar topics.

Foundational Skills

RF.5.3a Use combined knowledge of all letter-sound correspondences, syllabication patterns, and morphology (e.g., roots and affixes) to read accurately unfamiliar multi-syllabic words in context and out of context.

L.RF.5.4a Read grade-level text with purpose and understanding.

L.RF.5.4c Use context to confirm or self-correct word recognition and understanding, rereading as necessary.

Speaking and Listening

SL.PE.5.1 [M] Engage effectively in a range of collaborative discussions (one-on-one, in groups, and teacher-led) with diverse partners on grade 5 topics and texts, building on others' ideas and expressing their own clearly.

SL.PE.5.1a [M] Explicitly draw on previously read text or material and other information known about the topic to explore ideas under discussion.

SL.PE.5.1b [M] Follow agreed-upon rules for discussions and carry out assigned roles.

SL.PE.5.1c [M] Pose and respond to specific questions by making comments that contribute to the discussion and elaborate on the remarks of others.

SL.PE.5.1d [M] Review the key ideas expressed and draw conclusions in light of information and knowledge gained from the discussions

SL.II.5.2 [M] Paraphrase portions of a text read aloud or information presented in diverse media and formats (e.g. visually, quantitatively, and orally).

SL.ES.5.3 [M] Summarize the points a speaker makes and explain how each claim is supported by reasons and evidence.

SL.PI.5.4[M] Report on a topic or text or present an opinion, sequencing ideas logically and using appropriate facts and relevant, descriptive details to support main ideas or themes; speak clearly at an understandable pace.(Students may present their solution to a simple design problem related to climate change that includes specified criteria for success and constraints on material, time, or cost).

SL.UM.5.5 Include multimedia components (e.g., graphics, sound) and visual displays in presentations when appropriate to enhance the development of main ideas or themes.

SL.AS.5.6 [M] Adapt speech to a variety of contexts and tasks, using formal English when appropriate to task and situation.

Writing

W.NW.5.3 [M] Write narratives to develop real or imagined experiences or events using effective technique, descriptive details, and clear event sequences.

W.NW.5.3a [M] Orient the reader by establishing a situation and introducing a narrator and/or characters; organize an event sequence that unfolds naturally.

W.NW.5.3b [M] Use narrative techniques, such as dialogue, description, and pacing, to develop experiences and events or show the responses of characters to situations

W.NW.5.3c [M] Use a variety of transitional words, phrases, and clauses to manage the sequence of events.

W.NW.5.3d [M] Use concrete words and phrases and sensory details to convey experiences and events precisely.

W.NW.5.3e [M] Provide a conclusion that follows from the narrated experiences or events.

W.WP.5.4 With guidance and support from peers and adults, develop and strengthen writing as needed by planning, revising, editing, rewriting, or trying a new approach.

W.RW.5.7 Write routinely over extended time frames (time for research, reflection, meta-cognition/Self-correction and revision) and shorter time frames (a single sitting or a day or two) for a range of discipline-specific tasks, purposes, and audiences.

W.WP.5.4a Consider audience, purpose, and intent before writing.

W.WP.5.4b Plan appropriately to use specialized, topic-specific language appropriate for the audience, purpose and subject matter.

W.WP.5.4c Consider writing as a process, including self-evaluation, revision and editing.

W.WP.5.4d With adult and peer feedback, and digital or print tools such as a dictionary, thesaurus, and/or spell checker, evaluate whether the writing achieved its goal and make changes in content or form as necessary.

W.WP.5.4e After initial drafting, expand, combine, and reduce sentences for meaning, audience, and style.

Language

L.VL.5.2a Use context (e.g., cause/effect relationships and comparisons in text) as a clue to the meaning of a word or phrase.

L.VL.5.2c [M] Consult reference materials (e.g., dictionaries, glossaries, thesauruses), both print and digital, to find the pronunciation and determine or clarify the precise meaning of key words and phrases.

L.5.6 Acquire and use accurately grade-appropriate general academic and domain-specific words and phrases, including those that signal contrast, addition, and other logical relationships (e.g., however, although, nevertheless, similarly, moreover, in addition).
