Big Ideas

Anchor Standards

- AS.R.1-3 The interactions of literary elements contribute to its overall meaning.
- AS.R.4-6 Authors use the structure of text and nuances of language to craft their work.
- AS.R.7-9 Good readers deduce meaning from text through interpretation and comparison.
- AS.W.1-3 Different formats of writing are used for different purposes.
- AS.W.7-9 Research requires the synthesis of ideas from a variety of sources and the presentation of those ideas in an original written interpretation.

Core Reading: Bud, Not Buddy

Supplemental Resources: Children of the Great Depression, Children of the Dust Bowl: The True Story of the School at Weedpatch Camp, The Roaring Twenties & The Great Depression, Witness to History: The Great Depression, Landmark Events in American History: The Stock Market Crash of 1929; Scope Magazine, Sadlier-Oxford Vocabulary Workshop, Google Platform, Flocabulary

Other Formative Writings: Persuasive Analysis using Multiple Text Evidence

Presentation Skills: Socratic Seminar

Technology: Google Platform, file retrieval, sharing online collaboration and slides

Career Education Integration

9.2.8b.4 Evaluate how traditional and nontraditional careers have evolved regionally, nationally, and globally.

9.2.8b.5 Analyze labor market trends using state and federal labor market information and other resources available online.

Connection:

During the Information Unit, students read texts about the Great Depression and the events that occurred during that period of history. While discussing these events, teachers can begin to talk about the evolution of traditional and nontraditional careers and how the economy affects the job market.

Cross-Curricular Integration

Integration Area: Visual and Performing Arts

Black History Month

1.1.8.B.1 Analyze the application of the elements of music in diverse Western and non-Western musical works from different historical eras using active listening and by reading and interpreting written scores.

1.2.8.A.3 Analyze the social, historical, and political impact of artists on culture and the impact of culture on the arts.

Activity:

During a study of the novel, Bud, Not Buddy, by Christopher Paul Curtis, students research the major events of the time period to include significant historical milestones related to the 1930s, The Great Depression, the Harlem Renaissance, the Jazz Age, the scientific causes of the Dust Bowl along with the relevant contemporary music, entertainment, art and photography of the time period. In collaboration with the Music Department, student and teacher performers demonstrate the origins of the Jazz Movement and the distinguishing characteristics and elements of Jazz Music.

Diversity Integration

Objective:

SWBAT develop an awareness of the diversity & the events leading up to the 16th Street Baptist Church bombing and its effect on the Civil Rights movement.

SWBAT analyze MLK's letters from a Birmingham jail speech while diving deep into the empathy component of CARES, focusing on the diversity and lives of those who were at the jail and the participants of the protest afterwards.

Activity:

Students will do a quick write to respond to the following:

What do you know (or think you know) about how African American people were treated in the 1960s?

Students will then watch the video "Letters From a Birmingham Jail" and research the 16th Street Baptist Church bombing.

Whole class discussion on feelings and questions regarding the events of the Civil Rights movements.

Partner talk- how can we connect current social justice issues to times of the past

Students will create their digital slideshow in groups.

Technology Integration

8.1.8DA.1: Organize and transform data collected using computational tools to make it usable for a specific purpose

8.1.8.DA.3: Identify the appropriate tool to access data based on its file format

8.1.8.DA.4: Transform data to remove errors and improve the accuracy of the data for analysis.

8.1.8.DA.5: Test, analyze, and refine computational models.

Activities:

Effective Presentations Slideshow-Students will discuss strategies and techniques for effective digital presentations.

1930s Research Project

Jazz Project Students will use print and digital sources to extrapolate significant historical information from in order to inform others about the time period in history.
