Diversity Integration

Religion

Objective:

SWBAT develop an awareness of the diversity & the events leading up to the 16th Street Baptist Church bombing and its effect on the Civil Rights movement.

SWBAT analyze MLK's letters from a Birmingham jail speech while diving deep into the empathy component of CARES, focusing on the diversity and lives of those who were at the jail and the participants of the protest afterwards.

Activity:

Students will do a quick write to respond to the following:

What do you know (or think you know) about how African American people were treated in the 1960s?

Students will then watch the video "Letters From a Birmingham Jail" and research the 16th Street Baptist Church bombing.

Whole class discussion on feelings and questions regarding the events of the Civil Rights movements.

Partner talk- how can we connect current social justice issues to times of the past

Students will create their digital slideshow in groups.

Cross-Curricular Integration

Integration Area: Visual and Performing Arts

1.1.8.B.1 Analyze the application of the elements of music in diverse Western and non-Western musical works from different historical eras using active listening and by reading and interpreting written scores.

1.2.8.A.3 Analyze the social, historical, and political impact of artists on culture and the impact of culture on the arts.

Activity:

During a study of the novel, Bud, Not Buddy, by Christopher Paul Curtis, students research the major events of the time period to include significant historical milestones related to the 1930s, The Great Depression, the Harlem Renaissance, the Jazz Age, the scientific causes of the Dust Bowl along with the relevant contemporary music, entertainment, art and photography of the time period. In collaboration with the Music Department, student and teacher performers demonstrate the origins of the Jazz Movement and the distinguishing characteristics and elements of Jazz Music.

CRLKs- Career Education

9.2.8b.4 Evaluate how traditional and nontraditional careers have evolved regionally, nationally, and globally.

9.2.8b.5 Analyze labor market trends using state and federal labor market information and other resources available online.

Connection:

During the Information Unit, students read texts about the Great Depression and the events that occurred during that period of history. While discussing these events, teachers can begin to talk about the evolution of traditional and nontraditional careers and how the economy affects the job market.

CSDT Technology Integration

8.1.8.A.1 Demonstrate knowledge of a real world problem using digital tools.

8.1.8.A.2 Create a document (e.g. newsletter, reports, personalized learning plan, business letters or flyers) using one or more digital applications to be critiqued by professionals for usability.

8.1.8.A.5 Create a database query, sort and create a report and describe the process, and explain the report results.

- 8.1.8.B.1 Synthesize and publish information about a local or global issue or event (ex. Telecollaborative project, blog, school web).
- 8.1.8.C.1 Collaborate to develop and publish work that provides perspectives on a global problem for discussions with learners from other countries.
- 8.1.8.D.1 Understand and model appropriate online behaviors related to cyber safety, cyber bullying, cyber security, and cyber ethics including appropriate use of social media.
- 8.1.8.D.2 Demonstrate the application of appropriate citations to digital content.
- 8.1.8.D.3 Demonstrate an understanding of fair use and Creative Commons to intellectual property.
- 8.1.8.D.4 Assess the credibility and accuracy of digital content.
- 8.1.8.D.5 Understand appropriate uses for social media and the negative consequences of misuse.
- 8.1.8.E.1 Effectively use a variety of search tools and filters in professional public databases to find information to solve a real world problem.

Activity:

Students will utilize print and online sources such as NEWSLA, Junior Scholastic and other current periodicals to research topics, locate appropriate and credible articles and summarize current events in properly formatted (MLA) explanatory and persuasive essays.

Activity:

Students will use technology to draft, create and publish a properly formatted document (MLA) for their Research Report using digital tools to revise, edit and collaborate with peers to offer and accept meaningful feedback to improve writing while efficiently using effective file management strategies and organization while properly citing source information.

Activity:

Students will use technology to draft, create and publish a properly formatted document (MLA) for their Multiple Text Essay using digital tools to revise, edit and collaborate with peers to offer and accept meaningful feedback to improve writing while efficiently using file management strategies and organization.
