STUDENT LEARNING TARGETS

Declarative Knowledge

Students will understand:

- The proper doubling procedures used when writing a triad in four-part harmony.
- That some instruments may read music in "transposed" key signatures based on the physical size of the instrument and techincal characteristics used by the performer.
- That a composer must be able to transpose music into every key in order to accommodate the performer of the piece of music.

Procedural Knowledge

Students will be able to:

- Notate music for an instrumental trio, quartet, or quintet.
- Take a concert pitch melody line and transpose it to any key, in order to accommodate transposing instruments.
- Transpose a melody line from one transposing instrument to another utilizing key signatures and intervals.
