Length: 24 days

UNIT ORIENTATION

---

This unit moves students from writing a book a day (primary workshop) to work on longer projects (intermediate workshop). Students invest time in rehearsal for writing, collecting quick drafts of possible stories in notebook entries, and later select one to take through the writing process. Students will develop stories that are driven by characters' experiences and their responses to those experiences. Emphasis will be placed on volume of writing as third graders should be able to write a page-long entry in one sitting

Essential Questions

---

☐ How can I draw on a special experience to tell a captivating story? ☐

How can I organize and balance my writing in a way that is clear to the reader, interests the reader, and emphasizes the heart of the story? ☐

How do I revise and edit while independently crafting a personal narrative?
