General Overview, Course Description or Course Philosophy

Latin 2

Building upon the framework established in Latin 1, this course continues the study of grammar, introducing students to increasingly more sophisticated forms. The course carries on the comparison of English and Latin in the areas of grammar and vocabulary. The course will explore additional institutions and traditions of Roman culture that have had an impact on Western society. Media aids are used to enhance the academic experience.

OBJECTIVES, ESSENTIAL QUESTIONS, ENDURING UNDERSTANDINGS

Students will understand:

- how the verbs of the perfect passive system are formed and translated.
- the uses and possible translations of the perfect passive participle.
- how to properly form and translate the present, perfect, and future infinitives in indirect statement.
- how the Romans laid the foundation for Western education.

Essential Questions:

- What does the word perfect mean as a description of verbs?
- How can a word be both a verb and adjective?
- Why do participles and infinitives have only three tenses?
- What subjects did Roman children in school and at home?

Enduring Understandings:

- The verbs of the perfect passive system are compound verbs that require the perfect passive participle and a form of the the verb to be, "esse."
- A participle can act like a verb and adjective.
- Infinitives when used in indirect statement do not have a fixed translation.
- Roman education was focused primarily on enhancing a student command of language.
