Content Area: World Language
Course(s):
Time Period: Full Year
Length: 30 days
Status: Published

General Overview, Course Description or Course Philosophy

Latin 2

Building upon the framework established in Latin 1, this course continues the study of grammar, introducing students to increasingly more sophisticated forms. The course carries on the comparison of English and Latin in the areas of grammar and vocabulary. The course will explore additional institutions and traditions of Roman culture that have had an impact on Western society. Media aids are used to enhance the academic experience.

OBJECTIVES, ESSENTIAL QUESTIONS, ENDURING UNDERSTANDINGS

Students will understand:

- how to form the present and imperfect subjunctives.
- that the subjunctive is verbal mood that can be used independently to express possibility, doubt, emotion, judgment, or even ideas that are contrary to fact.
- that the subjunctive is also used in dependent clauses that express the purpose for doing something.
- why certain plot elements are so universal in heroic legends.

Essential Questions:

- What is difference between a volitive and optative subjunctive?
- Why are the volitive and optative described as independent uses of the subjunctive?
- What does the the term "sequence of tenses" mean and how should it be applied to purpose clauses?
- What common motifs or themes appear in the legends of the Perseus, Heracles, Theseus, and Jason?

Enduring Understandings:

- The subjunctive is a verbal mood used to express ideas or describe situations that are not factual from the point of view of the speaker.
- The verbs in the subjunctive can be a main verb or a dependent verb.
- The sequence of tenses can be applied to almost every subordinate clause that requires the subjunctive.
- The legendary tales of Greco-Roman mythology contain plot elements that common to all stories of heroic struggle and adventure.
