OBJECTIVES, ESSENTIAL QUESTIONS, ENDURING UNDERSTANDINGS

Essential Question: What techniques and elements of language do poets use to convey their ideas and emotions in their works of poetry?

Students will understand the following:

- How poets use figurative language, such as similes, metaphors, and personification to create vivid imagery and convey deeper meaning in their poems.
- The importance of poetic devices, such as rhyme, rhythm, and repetition in enhancing the impact of the poetry,
- How poets use various forms, and structures such as sonnets, haikus, and free verse to shape their poems and convey different messages.
- The role of tone and mood in poetry, and how poets use specific words and phrases to evoke specific emotions and atmosphere.
- The concept of symbolism in poetry recognizes how poets use objects, actions, or ideas to represent deeper meanings or themes.
- The power of word choice and diction in poetry, explores how specific words and their connotations can change a reader's interpretation and emotional response.
- The importance of interpretation and analysis in poetry, learning how to analyze themes, messages, and literary devices utilized by poets to deepen personal appreciation and understanding of poetry.

General Overview, Course Description or Course Philosophy

Students will embark on a journey to explore the artistry and beauty of poetry. Aligned with the New Jersey Student Language standards for English Language Arts, this unit aims to deepen students' understanding and appreciation of poetry as a form of literary expression. Through close reading and analysis of various poems, students will delve into the techniques and elements of language employed by poets to convey their ideas and emotions. They will explore figurative language, poetic devices, and the use of form and structure to shape meaning. Students will also examine the role of tone, mood, symbolism, and word choice in evoking specific emotions and creating imagery. Through reading, writing, and discussion, students will develop critical thinking skills, enhance their interpretation abilities, and refine their own poetic voices.

CONTENT AREA STANDARDS

RL.7.1. Cite several pieces of textual evidence and make relevant connections to support analysis of what the text says explicitly as well as inferences drawn from the text.

RL.7.2. Determine a theme or central idea of a text and analyze its development over the course of the text; provide an objective summary of the text.

RL.7.3. Analyze how particular elements of a story or drama interact (e.g., how setting shapes the characters or plot).

RL.7.5. Analyze how a drama's or poem's form or structure (e.g., soliloquy, sonnet) contributes to its meaning.

RL.7.6. Analyze how an author develops and contrasts the points of view of different characters or narrators in a text.

RI.7.4. Determine the meaning of words and phrases as they are used in a text, including figurative, connotative, and technical meanings; analyze the impact of a specific word choice on meaning and tone.

W.7.10. Write routinely over extended time frames (time for research, reflection, metacognition/self correction, and revision) and shorter time frames (a single sitting or a day or two) for a range of discipline-specific tasks, purposes, and audiences.

SL.7.1. Engage effectively in a range of collaborative discussions (one-on-one, in groups, and teacher-led) with diverse partners on grade 7 topics, texts, and issues, building on others' ideas and expressing their own clearly.

A. Come to discussions prepared, having read or researched material under study; explicitly draw on that preparation by referring to evidence on the topic, text, or issue to probe and reflect on ideas under discussion.

B. Follow rules for collegial discussions, track progress toward specific goals and deadlines, and define individual roles as needed.

C. Pose questions that elicit elaboration and respond to others' questions and comments with relevant observations and ideas that bring the discussion back on topic as needed.

D. Acknowledge new information expressed by others and, when warranted, modify their own views.

L.7.5. Demonstrate understanding of figurative language, word relationships, and nuances in word meanings.

A. Interpret figures of speech (e.g., literary, biblical, and mythological allusions) in context.

B. Use the relationship between particular words (e.g., synonym/antonym, analogy) to better understand each of the words.

C. Distinguish among the connotations (associations) of words with similar denotations (definitions) (e.g., refined, respectful, polite, diplomatic, condescending).

LA.L.7.1	Demonstrate command of the conventions of standard English grammar and usage when writing or speaking.
