General Overview, Course Description or Course Philosophy

Social Studies 6

Social studies will provide students with the knowledge and skills necessary to become active informed members of society. It will facilitate thinking about their community and the world around them so that they can become responsible civic-minded individuals. During the sixth grade students will focus on "The Beginnings of Human Society", Early Civilizations and the Emergence of Pastoral Peoples: Early River Valley Civilizations" and "The Classical Civilizations of the Mediterranean World, India, and China".

OBJECTIVES, ESSENTIAL QUESTIONS, ENDURING UNDERSTANDINGS

Students will understand that

- governments have different structures which impact development (expansion) and civic participation.
- the principles of the United States government are based on political philosophies, ideas, and experiences of earlier governments.
- relationships between humans and environments impact spatial patterns of settlement and movement.
- historical events and developments are shaped by social, political, cultural, technological, and economic factors.
- an individual's perspective is impacted by their background and experiences.
- perspectives change over time.
- historians analyze claims within sources for perspective and validity
