General Overview, Course Description or Course Philosophy

The 21st-Century Life and Career Standards, through instruction in life and career skills, intends that all students acquire the knowledge and skills needed to prepare for life as citizens and workers in the 21st century. These skills include creativity, critical thinking, collaboration, and problem solving skills needed in order for individuals to function successfully as global citizens and workers in diverse ethnic and organizational cultures. 21st Century careers and occupations are those that have been impacted by technological and global forces and are in an ongoing state of reinvention due to technological advances and e-commerce.

Sport & Entertainment marketing is a subdivision of marketing which focuses both on the promotion of sports, events, games, music and films and the promotion of other products and services through sport and entertainment. The students will learn the foundation of sports and entertainment marketing, and they will be actively working on real-life business cases provided directly by the industry. The student will develop an understanding of the marketing, sponsorship, and endorsements concepts using a virtual program, Knowledge Matters. Knowledge Matter's online interactive business simulations teach the students key business and marketing concepts.
