General Overview, Course Description or Course Philosophy

The 21st-Century Life and Career Standards, through instruction in life and career skills, intends that all students acquire the knowledge and skills needed to prepare for life as citizens and workers in the 21st century. These skills include creativity, critical thinking, collaboration, and problem solving skills needed in order for individuals to function successfully as global citizens and workers in diverse ethnic and organizational cultures. 21st Century careers and occupations are those that have been impacted by technological and global forces and are in an ongoing state of reinvention due to technological advances and e-commerce.

The course is designed to give students a thorough background in the basic accounting procedures used to operate a business. The accounting procedures presented will also serve as a sound background for employment in office jobs and preparation for studying business courses in college. Students will become acquainted with the principles of double entry bookkeeping including the preparation of financial statements for a sole proprietorship, partnership and corporate businesses.

The objective of this class is to prepare students for jobs requiring a basic knowledge of business records and to introduce the fundamentals of accounting for students who wish to go into advanced work in this field. There is also a personal use objective that can be obtained from this class. This class is intended to be a hands-on learning experience. It requires the student to read the text, listen to a limited amount of lecture, and a great deal of “doing” accounting work in class. Students will gain the technical and procedural skills required in accounting departments of today's businesses. The student will not only be trained in basic accounting principles but will also become proficient in automated systems and advanced applications which require greater analysis and decision making. Students will work through an accounting cycle for a proprietorship, partnership, and merchandising businesses.

OBJECTIVES, ESSENTIAL QUESTIONS, ENDURING UNDERSTANDINGS

Enduring Understandings:

- Employers are responsible for paying the payroll taxes withheld from employee earnings each pay period.
- Taxes are paid at a later date than when they are journalized and are therefore considered liabilities until they are paid.

Essential Questions:

Why are taxes journalized as a liability until they are paid?
How are payroll taxes withheld from employee earning each pay period recorded?
