

02 The Emergence of Modern America: Imperialism and Progressive Reforms (1890–1930)

Content Area: Social Studies
Course(s):
Time Period: Full Year
Length: 3 Weeks
Status: Published

General Overview, Course Description or Course Philosophy

United States History II is designed to help students develop an understanding of the political, economic, technological, cultural, and social development of the United States from the post-Reconstruction period to the present.

OBJECTIVES, ESSENTIAL QUESTIONS, ENDURING UNDERSTANDINGS

Enduring Understandings:

- Progressive reform movements promoted government efforts to address problems created by rapid industrialization, immigration, and unfair treatment of women, children, and minority groups.
- An expanding market for international trade promoted policies that resulted in America emerging as a world power.

Social Studies NJSL 2020 Essential Question(s):

- How do citizens, civic ideals, and government institutions interact to balance the needs of individuals and the common good?
- How have economic, political, and cultural decisions promoted or prevented the growth of personal freedom, individual responsibility, equality, and respect for human dignity?
- How do physical geography, human geography, and the human environment interact to influence or determine the development of cultures, societies, and nations?
- How can individuals, groups, and societies apply economic reasoning to make difficult choices about scarce resources? What are the possible consequences of these decisions for individuals, groups, and societies?
- How have scientific and technological developments over the course of history changed the way people live and economies and governments function?
- How do our interpretations of past events inform our understanding of cause and effect, and continuity and change, and how do they influence our beliefs and decisions about current public policy issues?
- How do our interpretations of past events inform our understanding of cause and effect, and continuity and change, and how do they influence our beliefs and decisions about current public policy issues?
- How can the study of multiple perspectives, beliefs systems, and cultures provide a context for understanding and challenging public actions and decisions in a diverse and interdependent world?

|------------------|---|
| LA.RH.9-10.1 | Accurately cite strong and thorough textual evidence, to support analysis of primary and secondary sources, attending to such features as the date and origin of the information. |
| LA.RH.9-10.2 | Determine the theme, central ideas, key information and/or perspective(s) presented in a primary or secondary source; provide an accurate summary that makes clear the relationships among the key details and ideas. |
| LA.RH.9-10.3 | Analyze in detail a series of events described in a text; draw connections between the events, to determine whether earlier events caused later ones or simply preceded them. |
| LA.RH.9-10.4 | Determine the meaning of words and phrases as they are used in a text, including vocabulary describing political, social, or economic aspects of history and the social sciences; analyze the cumulative impact of specific word choices on meaning and tone. |
| LA.RH.9-10.5 | Analyze how a text uses structure to emphasize key points or advance an explanation or analysis. |
| LA.RH.9-10.6 | Compare the point of view of two or more authors in regards to how they treat the same or similar topics, including which details they include and emphasize in their respective accounts. |
| LA.RH.9-10.7 | Integrate quantitative or technical analysis (e.g., charts, research data) with qualitative analysis in print or digital text, to analyze information presented via different mediums. |
| LA.RH.9-10.8 | Assess the extent to which the reasoning and evidence in a text support the author's claims. |
| LA.RH.9-10.9 | Compare and contrast treatments of the same topic, or of various perspectives, in several primary and secondary sources; analyze how they relate in terms of themes and significant historical concepts. |
| LA.RH.9-10.10 | By the end of grade 10, read and comprehend history/social studies texts in the grades 9-10 text complexity band independently and proficiently. |
| LA.WHST.9-10.1 | Write arguments to support claims in an analysis of substantive topics or texts, using valid reasoning and relevant sufficient textual and non-textual evidence. |
| LA.WHST.9-10.1.A | Introduce precise claim(s), distinguish the claim(s) from alternate or opposing claims, and create an organization that establishes clear relationships among the claim(s), |

| | |
|------------------|---|
| | counterclaims, reasons, and evidence. |
| LA.WHST.9-10.1.B | Develop claim(s) and counterclaims using sound reasoning, supplying data and evidence for each while pointing out the strengths and limitations of both claim(s) and counterclaims in a discipline-appropriate form and in a manner that anticipates the audience's knowledge level and concerns. |
| LA.WHST.9-10.1.C | Use transitions (e.g., words, phrases, clauses) to link the major sections of the text, create cohesion, and clarify the relationships between claim(s) and reasons, between reasons and evidence, and between claim(s) and counterclaims. |
| LA.WHST.9-10.1.D | Establish and maintain a style and tone appropriate to the audience and purpose (e.g., formal and objective for academic writing) while attending to the norms and conventions of the discipline in which they are writing. |
| LA.WHST.9-10.1.E | Provide a concluding paragraph or section that supports the argument presented. |
| LA.WHST.9-10.4 | Produce clear and coherent writing in which the development, organization, and style are appropriate to task, purpose, and audience. |
| LA.WHST.9-10.5 | Develop and strengthen writing as needed by planning, revising, editing, rewriting, or trying a new approach, focusing on addressing what is most significant for a specific purpose and audience. |
| LA.WHST.9-10.6 | Use technology, including the Internet, to produce, share, and update writing products, taking advantage of technology's capacity to link to other information and to display information flexibly and dynamically. |
| LA.WHST.9-10.7 | Conduct short as well as more sustained research projects to answer a question (including a self-generated question) or solve a problem; narrow or broaden the inquiry when appropriate; synthesize multiple sources on the subject, demonstrating understanding of the subject under investigation. |
| LA.WHST.9-10.8 | Gather relevant information from multiple authoritative print and digital sources, using advanced searches effectively; assess the usefulness of each source in answering the research question; integrate information into the text selectively to maintain the flow of ideas, avoiding plagiarism and following a standard format for citation. |
| LA.WHST.9-10.9 | Draw evidence from informational texts to support analysis, reflection, and research. |
| LA.WHST.9-10.10 | Write routinely over extended time frames (time for reflection and revision) and shorter time frames (a single sitting or a day or two) for a range of discipline-specific tasks, purposes, and audiences. |

STUDENT LEARNING TARGETS

Declarative Knowledge

Students will understand the:

- Factors that led America to pursue a policy of imperialism
- The causes and effects of the Spanish American War
- The Treaty of Paris, 1898
- The causes and effects of the Filipino American War
- The Open Door Policy
- The factors that drove the Progressive Era
- The domestic and foreign policies of Presidents Roosevelt, Taft, and Wilson, during the Progressive

Era

- Determine how supply and demand influenced price and output during the Industrial Revolution.
- Analyze the impact of money, investment, credit, savings, debt, and financial institutions on the development of the nation and the lives of individuals.
- Explore factors that promoted innovation, entrepreneurship, and industrialization.
- Determine the impact of innovation, entrepreneurship, and industrialization on New Jersey (i.e. Paterson Silk Strike) and the United States during this period.
- Compare and contrast the foreign policies of American presidents during this time period.
- Analyze how the Progressive Era presidents contributed to the United States becoming a world power.
- Analyze the successes and failures of efforts to expand women's rights, including the work of important leaders and the eventual ratification of the 19th Amendment (i.e., Elizabeth Cady Stanton, Susan B. Anthony, Alice Paul, and Lucy Stone).
- Evaluate the effectiveness of labor and agricultural organizations in improving economic opportunities and rights for various groups.

EVIDENCE OF LEARNING

Alternative:

- Portfolios
- Verbal Assessment (instead of written)
- Multiple choice
- Modified Rubrics
- Performance Based Assessments

Benchmark:

Standards based through Pear Assessment

Benchmark Assessments

- Benchmark Assessments using Pear Assessments three times per year

Formative Assessments

- Help students track their individual progress toward the learning target
- Students will be asked to explain their progress toward learning targets
- Students will be asked to provide evidence of their progress toward the learning target

Alternative:

- Formative measures such as small map quizzes and exit slips containing multiple-choice questions or other open-ended responses will be used to determine student progress toward learning targets

Summative Assessments

- Students will complete an end of unit test consisting of multiple-choice questions requiring the examining of maps, text, and graphs about the War for Independence. Essay questions will include prompts such as:
 1. Explain three different factors that led the United States to pursue overseas expansionism.
 2. Explain the causes and effects of the Spanish American War.
 3. Evaluate the extent to which the lives of women and African Americans changed during the Progressive Era.
 4. How did the role of the federal government change during the Progressive Era?
- Students can select a topic from the late 19th century to 2000 to write a year long research paper. This will help to enhance their understanding of the topic and to further develop their research and writing skills.
