General Overview, Course Description or Course Philosophy

The 21st-Century Life and Career Standards, through instruction in life and career skills, intends that all students acquire the knowledge and skills needed to prepare for life as citizens and workers in the 21st century. These skills include creativity, critical thinking, collaboration, and problem solving skills needed in order for individuals to function successfully as global citizens and workers in diverse ethnic and organizational cultures. 21st Century careers and occupations are those that have been impacted by technological and global forces and are in an ongoing state of reinvention due to technological advances and e-commerce.

In Entrepreneurship, the students will learn the foundations of Entrepreneurship. The student will learn what is necessary in order to become a successful entrepreneur. They will examine the traits and skills of successful entrepreneurs, research many successful businesses and compare the risks and rewards of owning a business. The student will develop an understanding of market research, creating a business plan, and raising the money using a virtual program, Knowledge Matters. Knowledge Matter's online interactive business simulations teach the students key business and marketing concepts.

OBJECTIVES, ESSENTIAL QUESTIONS, ENDURING UNDERSTANDINGS

Enduring Understandings:

- A marketing plan is a detailed guide with two parts: marketing goals and strategies for reaching your goals (the marketing mix).
- The importance of location.

Essential Questions:

How is a marketing plan a detailed guide with two parts?

Why is location so important?
