General Overview, Course Description or Course Philosophy

This unit seeks to provide students with an understanding of the physical, emotional and social aspects of human relationships and how they support a healthy, active lifestyle. Students will learn how to develop and maintain healthy relationships with friends and family members. Students will understand how family and groups may look, and will explore healthy ways of expressing feelings, responding to disagreements, etc.

Students will learn listed topics with school guidance counselor throughout the year, ranging from learning how to get along with peers, family members, teachers, etc. Students will learn healthy ways to express feelings and appropriate conflict management. Many of the interpersonal topics are addressed k-2 school-wide as students and staff abide by FULL VALUES.

Special Note:

Reproduction will be addressed by 2nd grade classroom unit during mammal unit.

Self-expression will be covered by guidance counselor during 2nd grade diversity lesson. (supplemental lesson in Art when students do self-portrait with multicultural crayons)

Bullying will be covered by guidance counselor and school assembly.

Kiel's Full-Value Playground can be used by staff to reinforce topics.

OBJECTIVES, ESSENTIAL QUESTIONS, ENDURING UNDERSTANDINGS

Every individual has unique skills and qualities, which can include the activities they enjoy such as how they may dress, their mannerisms, things they like to do.

Families can shape the way we think about our bodies, our health and our behaviors.
We all fit into a group in some way: our class, family, sports team, school, etc

People have relationships with others in the local community and beyond.

We all have similarities and differences.

We are unique

When a conflict happens in the group or personally, we have the ability to resolve conflict by communicating respectfully

Communication is the basis for strengthening relationships and resolving conflict between people.

Conflicts between people occur, and there are effective ways to resolve them.

Boundaries keep us safe and should be respected. (ie: personal space, appropriate vs inappropriate)
