General Overview, Course Description or Course Philosophy

The Transition Education course is designed to provide students with the necessary skills needed to be successful when leaving high school and entering the adult world. Students will have the opportunity to continue developing their employability skills by engaging and exploring different career options. Students will develop a better knowledge of their strengths and their weaknesses through their job experiences. The goal is to provide a variety of hands-on learning opportunities to help students discover their future career goal while becoming as successful and as independent as they can in today's society.

OBJECTIVES, ESSENTIAL QUESTIONS, ENDURING UNDERSTANDINGS

Work Based Learning

Work Based Learning (WBL) is developed in accordance with the New Jersey State Learning Standards for students per their specific IEP requirement. This program includes the teaching of skills that can be transferred to the workplace; the readiness skills necessary for students to explore careers, choose employment of interest, apply for positions, and help sustain good work performance upon entering the workforce. This may be a paid job, an unpaid learning experience, an internship, or a volunteer position. Students are expected to work a minimum of 10 hours per week in order to obtain credit for participating in the WBL. Students will work under the direction of a work site mentor and will be observed by the WBL Coordinator. A job coach will be provided to the student if extra support is required. Students will have an opportunity to develop practical work skills, attitudes and behaviors with a special focus on following directions, attention to tasks and the ability to cooperate with co-workers. Students' work experiences will be guided through the collective efforts of school administration, teaching staff, CST, family, and community. As students explore their interests and the world around them, they will learn to appreciate diversity, develop tolerance and work collaboratively as they become positive members of society. This course is taken in conjunction with the Transition Education course.

Essential Questions:

- How do people secure employment?
- How do people maintain employment?
- What is the job of the supervisor?
- What are your rights as employees?

Enduring Understandings:

- Students will be able to demonstrate critical life skills in order to be functional members of society.
- Students will develop career awareness and planning, employability skills and a foundational knowledge necessary for success in the workplace.
