Unit Overview

Social and emotional learning (SEL) refers to the process by which children and adults acquire and effectively apply the knowledge, attitudes and skills necessary to do the following: understand and manage emotions; set and achieve positive goals; feel and show empathy for others; and make responsible decisions. Students in SEL programs are more likely to attend school and receive better grades and are less likely to have behavioral problems. Successful infusion of SEL can result in positive behaviors, increased academic success, enhances students' capacity to integrate skills, attitudes, and behaviors to deal effectively and ethically with daily tasks and challenges.

Enduring Understandings

Sharing is a form of SEL.

Accepting differences.

Respecting others.

Pillars are Citizenship, Respect, Positivity, Kindness, Responsibility, and Trustworthiness.

Respect starts with us respecting ourselves.

SEL Competencies are Self Awareness, Self Management, Social Awareness, Relationship Skills, and Responsible Decision Making.

Recognize one's feelings and thoughts • Recognize the impact of one's feelings and thought on one's own behavior.

Essential Questions

What are the character pillars?

How do we respect ourselves and others?

How do we contribute to our school and global community?

How can we recognize and identify the thoughts, feelings, and perspectives of others?

How can we demonstrate an awareness of the differences among individuals, groups, and others' cultural backgrounds?

How can we demonstrate an understanding of the need for mutual respect when viewpoints differ?

Learning Objectives

Recognize how words and actions affect how a person can feel

Identify the character pillars and state competencies
 Assume responsibility for respecting differences in others
 Build upon their character through SEL
 Recognize one's personal traits, strengths and limitations
 Recognize the importance of self-confidence in handling daily tasks
 Demonstrate an awareness of the expectations for social interactions in a variety of settings
