

Unit 1 - Writing Narratives

Content Area: ELA
Course(s):
Time Period: Full Year
Length: Full Year
Status: Published

Unit Overview

Students will be able to respond to text-based and non-text based narrative writing prompts; establish a real/imagined context and introduce a narrator/characters ; organize event sequences using chronological, spatial, logical and topical order; use narrative techniques, such as dialogue, figurative language, and description to develop experiences and ideas; use transition words/phrases to shift from one time frame to another; use precise words/phrases, sensory language, and descriptive details to relate experiences/events; provide a conclusion/resolution that follows the order/events of the narrative; demonstrate command of grade-appropriate standard English conventions.

Enduring Understandings

Writing as a process is derived from real-life and text-based narrative experiences.

A writer uses language conventions such as punctuation, tense and subject consistency, narrative point of view, spelling, and figurative language to compose a writing sample.

Essential Questions

How do writers formulate and brainstorm ideas/thesis statements?

How do writers organize and sequence main ideas/thesis statements?

How do topic and supporting sentences explain the main idea/thesis?

How does a writer successfully employ the writing process to create a compelling text-based and non-text-based narrative?

How do the conventions of Standard English contribute to effective writing?

Learning Objectives

Compose narrative essays that include effective introductory elements (thesis, setting, characters), narrative techniques (event sequencing, dialogue, sensory details), transition words/phrases, and concluding thoughts/statements

Compose clear and coherent writing illustrating organization, development, and style addressing purpose and audience

Compare/contrast similarly themed texts

Participate in collaborative peer revision and editing

Express their interpretations/opinions through collaborative group discussions

Participate in think/pair/share sessions designed to encourage collaboration and critical thinking

Utilize language conventions such as punctuation, consistency (tense and agreement), spelling, and figurative

language to improve their writing skills
