Unit Overview

In a representative democracy, individuals play a role in how the government functions. In that capacity, they are able to create laws and enact change. It is through participation in government and in the decision-making process that individuals can create change. In this unit, students will continue to explore those themes as well as learn about New Jersey citizens who impacted our State.

Enduring Understandings

Citizens and participation are what keep our government functioning. A major role of citizens in a representative democracy is to make responsible decisions about who should govern. Each citizen has a right and responsibility.

Essential Questions

Explain how the NJ State government works.

How are laws created in NJ?

Explain the importance of collecting taxes in relation to our school and community.

How can we create change within our government?

What is the relationship between economic growth and opportunity?

How did early immigrants impact NJ?

Learning Objectives

Define government and explain its purpose. Identify and explain a representative democracy.

Explain the qualifications to become an elected official in NJ.

Describe the role of the New Jersey Government versus the national government.

Describe the roles and responsibilities of elected representatives at the state level.

Compare and contrast the roles of elected officials on a state and local level.

Compare how laws are made on the state and federal level.

Identify who state leaders are and how a citizen can contact them.

Distinguish the roles and responsibilities of the three branches of the state government. (both state and federal)

Read and explain some of the main principles in the New Jersey Constitution.

Understand the concept of taxes and identify some services in the community that are paid for by taxes (e.g. school, county and state roads, fire, police, etc.)

Identify and define core civic virtues and democratic principles.

Explain the importance of the Voting Rights Act and the Americans with Disabilities Law. (DEI/People with Disabilities)
