Unit Overview

Students will make use of new and unique tools to investigate ways artists express themselves in the creation of art. They will also be made aware of modern art and the creation thereof. Students will utilize vocabulary to express their thoughts and ideas in the lesson review and class critique

Enduring Understandings

Culture and artistic periods affects self-expression without our awareness.
We can find similarities throughout the ages. What is old and what is new in any work of art, from cavemen to abstract and everything in between.

Essential Questions

How can you draw, color and construct an abstract image which encodes the elements of art?
Why is drawing universally appealing?
How do artists influence culture?
How do artists reflect culture?
How is technology incorporated into everyday art?
To what extent does choice of media impact emotional and intellectual significance?
How can the elements and principles of design be used to create emotional and intellectual impact?

Learning Objectives

Students will interpret art by analyzing how the interaction of subject matter, characteristics of form and structure, use of media, art making approaches, and relevant contextual information contributes to understanding messages or ideas and mood conveyed.
Draw, plan and create a scratchboard design incorporating the elements of art.
Students will analyze and contrast how art forms are used to represent, establish, reinforce and reflect group identity and culture in Paris.
Use the elements of art to create meaningful art projects.
Individually create a 2-dimensional work of art.
Employ appropriate vocabulary for this unit.
Describe, analyze, interpret and judge their abstract art, the art of master artists and their peers.
Career Exploration – Students will examine careers in business which utilize art (, marketing, prop construction, advertising)
