

Unit 2: Respect/Kindness/Rules and Laws

Content Area: Social Studies
Course(s):
Time Period: Full Year
Length: November-December
Status: Published

Unit Overview

This unit helps preschool children develop an understanding of respect, kindness, and the importance of rules and laws in their everyday lives. Beginning with classroom expectations and expanding to simple community rules, children learn how positive behaviors help everyone feel safe, valued, and included. Through stories, discussions, role-play, and play-based learning, students practice empathy, self-regulation, and cooperation while building early civic awareness.

Enduring Understandings

- To become a respectful citizen treat others kindly, manners are imperative.
- Being respectful allows a person to live by the “Golden Rule” and to treat others the way you want to be treated.
- Our world would be chaos if we didn’t follow rules and laws.

Essential Questions

- Why are manners important?
- Why is it important to be respectful and kind?
- What would happen if we didn’t have rules and laws?

Learning Objectives

- Demonstrate kind and respectful behaviors toward others
- Identify and explain simple classroom rules
- Understand that rules and laws help keep people safe
- Practice problem-solving and conflict resolution with adult support
